

Isabelle Christianson Description

Recognized Teacher

How long have you been in education?

“3 years”

What is your current teaching position?

“1st Grade Teacher, Ingram Elementary School”

Why are you an Educator?

“First and foremost - for the children. Since I was young, I have always felt a strong calling to be a teacher. My passion is helping students learn, grow, and succeed. I especially love looking back and seeing all the progress my students have made, in so many different ways! My favorite part about being an educator is getting to know my students and making strong connections with each of them throughout the year.”

Why is Ingram ISD a great place to work?

“Ingram ISD is a wonderful place to teach because of all of the caring and helpful individuals that make it up. I am especially grateful for the supportive administration that listens and helps in any way possible. I could not have made it through my first 3 years of teaching without the love and support of the staff at Ingram ISD.”

A Quote About Geneva:

"Ms. Christianson is a natural! She creates such a calm and inviting learning environment. She knows exactly what each student needs and helps every student find success. I know she will touch many, many lives in the years to come." Kali Brandt, Principal, Ingram Elementary School
