Course Description:

Visual Arts I is an introduction to art elements and principles of design, artistic styles, periods of art, techniques and ways of making art. We will address questions, such as: why do we need to study art and how does art impact our lives on a daily basis. It will equip the student with a visual language and introduce them to the visual components of style. The format of this class will vary between lecture, online and hands-on art making. There will be a variety of assignments including some homework and projects that students are expected to complete on Google Classroom. There will be two public art exhibits. These exhibits coincide with the Chorus concerts with one being in the Fall and one in the Spring. Public is invited to these events.
