The Vacancy

Old Fort Local School District is seeking a qualified educational and organizational leader for the position of Treasurer. North Central Ohio Educational Service Center will be assisting the Old Fort Board of Education with its search. All applications will be reviewed by the Old Fort Local School Board of Education.

About the District and Community

Located in the small towns of Bettsville and Old Fort, Old Fort Local School District is nestled in northwest Seneca County, minutes from Tiffin and Fremont. Within both of these community-minded locations, students and families can thrive and have peace of mind knowing that Old Fort offers an amazing educational experience supported by highly qualified teachers and staff.

In 2014, Bettsville Local School District and Old Fort Local School District merged to form one unified District. The elementary building is located in Bettsville and the high school is in Old Fort. Old Fort Local Schools educate approximately 700 students that are from both Seneca and Sandusky counties.

In addition to traditional education, Old Fort Local School offers Career Technical Education through Vanguard-Sentinel and Technology Center and College Credit Plus opportunities. Students are supported from kindergarten through graduation and given opportunities that meet their needs. Old Fort Local Schools also have a strong relationship with Church & Dwight manufacturing company, which is located in Old Fort.
