Serving God Through Serving Others

Thinking about the many years that my daughter begged me to come on this yearly mission trip to Kentucky, of all places. They spent every year planning, collecting, fasting, praying, and studying God's word. These trips were always put together by someone who we all know as Mrs. Dawn, from Indianapolis. Me, not knowing or understanding what a life changing mission trip this would be, finally, unenthusiastically, gave in to my daughter's pleading. And that was the year that God showed me another facet of his wonderful glory and mighty mercy. I began to understand my children's love, compassion, and regard for these purposely created children of God.

I got to meet my now best bud, James, and his pretend son, Adam and my handy, hardworking assistant George (We know how rich and sharp he is). Effie, my new found "daughter" (we already know she acts just like her "dad").

The many unseen and seen miracles, like hearing Lance say his first word and it being none other than "Jesus." And of course, unapologetic Weldom, naked and running, looking for coffee. And all the many others that call me dad and Mr. Jeffrey.

My heart is filled with an indescribable love and joy, just being a part of working with like-minded people that are on this mission to always have "room for one more." Mr. Tucker, being this unbelievable father of many children that call him Dad, is being driven by the love his wife had for this mission, and who is lovingly called my mom who lives in heaven. Sandy Tucker's dream to start a family presented many challenges, resulting in this life-changing mission named The Galilean Home for Children. Teaching, caring, and loving all those who came in as volunteers and those that live here. Doing as Jesus does for us, to the best of our ability, meeting people where they are. Planting or watering that seed of love for one another, continuing to serve our Lord with works driven by faith; continued works to build the church that abides in the heart of man.

Thank God for my pushy children, that learned first at home to continue to draw others.

And finally and foremost, thanking God for Galilean, my "second home." My Indianapolis family thank me for coming back for a visit!

Also thankful to my God for allowing me this opportunity to be just a drop in a bucket of so many dedicated workers working together, to provide a larger space for the Girls' Dorm (coming soon). We will continue this mission as long as God continues to have us. Always remembering it all belongs to our gracious and merciful God.

Our lives are not ours, they belong to our Lord. The Lord gives us blessings in abundance. Not because we serve Him, but because He loves us. There is no greater love than our merciful and gracious God, who laid down his life for this opportunity to choose whom we will serve. Committed to serve him in our flesh full good, and our flesh full bad with a spiritual knowledge of whom we serve. The demise or fleeting nature of man has no forbearance of what is to come. According to the word of God, we walk by faith, not by what we see through the eyes of carnal man. Our human nature of fear or resistance can't see the reflection of the God we serve in spirit and truth. Our circumstance and situations in this flesh provide a navigation intended to continue the commission of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. In this life or the well done, good and faithful servant.

Thank God we know him, and we serve him. I dare not even imagine where we would be without our merciful and gracious God. To whom much is given, much is required, even in the affliction of our gift of this temporary life. We follow Christ, the greatest example of a man born to suffer for the sins of men.

James, Mr. Jeffrey and Weldom

Making Room for More

Woman's Dorm

We are "busting at the seams" in the dorm we currently have for our women residents. Nine women share one bathroom, the needs of the residents have changed as they have aged, and there are names of women on a waiting list that we are unable to take because we lack the room. The current dorm was constructed in the 1980's. It has served them well in the past, but we are now at a point where we need more space. The new living area will provide three handicapped accessible bathrooms, more bedrooms, and a larger kitchen and living area so that those with handicaps will be able to maneuver more easily.

Here at the Galilean Home, we have always believed that God will send out an army to help those who cannot help themselves. We ask for your prayers and support as we move forward in faith to begin creating "room for more."

To make a donation, you can mail a check with "Girls Dorm Construction" in the memo to PO Box 880, Liberty, Kentucky 42539 or donate online at www.galileanhomeministries.org For more information regarding donations, please contact Jennifer Coffey at 859-749-0727.

GET INVOLVED

Our volunteer program is a good way to dive in and be the hands and feet of Jesus in our ministry. Ladies 18 & older, if you feel you have the love and patience along with a good amount of flexibility to care for our family, we encourage you to apply. Volunteers are very important part of what we do. You get to care for our severely handicapped residents in the Blessing House, and other members of our family, as well as caring for our babies at the Angel House. We also need teacher's aides for our academy, so there are plenty of areas in which to serve. We provide housing and basic needs, but do require at least a three-month commitment.

Please prayerfully consider this and give our Volunteer Coordinator, Dawn Shultz, a call at 606.706.9457 or email her at dshultz@galileanhome.org for more info.
