

Charles Kennedy Description

Master Teacher

How long have you been in education?

“29 years”

What is your current teaching position?

“Science teacher Tom Moore High School”

Why are you an Educator?

“Summers off? Years ago, I was looking for a profession that would give me the opportunity for more family time. I like science and as it turns out, I enjoy working with kids. Education gave me the opportunity to rarely go to “work”. Most days I just go to school and try to learn with the kids.”

Why is Ingram ISD a great place to work?

“Ingram is a great place to be an educator because we have great administrators, great people throughout the district, and we have amazing kids.”

A Quote About Geneva:

"Mr. Kennedy fosters strong connections with his students in the science classroom, creating a supportive and inclusive learning environment. Through his genuine care and rapport-building skills, he not only imparts scientific knowledge but also cultivates meaningful relationships that inspire curiosity and growth among our students." Brandie Guzman, Assistant Principal, Ingram Tom Moore High School
