8. Financial Report

- a. Approval of Bills
Stacey Porter moved to approve the (February) bills as written, supported by Moran.
All in favor. Motion carried.

- b. Approval of Financial Reports - this report has been struck from the March minutes as of April 14th, 2026.
Kaszonyi moved to approve the (February) financial report, supported by Winfield.
Discussion held. All in favor. Motion carried.

Amendment: April 14th, 2026- Kaszonyi made a motion to strike the Activity Account Report that was issued and approved in the month of March and then move forward on approval of the March minutes including the removal of that document, which is being substituted today with an up to date one, for this meeting's report, supported by Moran. All in favor. Motion carried.

Kaszonyi; "For the record there is nothing nefarious in those records. It was just the presentation and dates that didn't align, because they were compared against the annual budget, which goes through the end of June, and we have not at that time entertained the recent modifications to that budget, so there were some numbers that would look way out of line."

9. Regular Business

- a. Approval of Teacher Resignation
Stacey Porter made a motion to accept Shannon Furst's resignation, supported by Hoffmeyer.
All in favor. Motion carried.
- b. Approval of LOA for 27L
