The students will learn:

- Students will learn the rituals and routines of the classroom and reader's workshop.
- Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, descriptive details and clear event sequences.
 - Orient the reader by establishing a situation and introducing a narrator and/or characters; organize an event sequence that unfolds naturally.
 - Use dialogue and description to develop experiences and events to show the responses of characters to situations.
 - Use a variety of transitional words and phrases to manage the sequence of events.
 - Use concrete words and phrases and sensory details to convey experiences and events precisely.
 - Provide a conclusion that follows from the narrated experiences or events.
- Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.
 - Produce complete sentences, recognizing and correcting inappropriate fragments and run-ons.
- Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.
 - Use correct capitalization.
 - Spell grade-appropriate words correctly, consulting references when needed.
- Use knowledge of language and its conventions when writing, speaking, reading, or listening.
 - Choose words and phrases to convey ideas precisely.
 - Choose punctuation for effect.
- Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grade 4 reading and content, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies.
 - Use common, grade-appropriate Greek and Latin affixes and roots as clues to the meaning of a word (e.g., telegraph, photograph, autograph).
