

Randolph County School System

“STAR³ Students” for February 2023

Coleridge Elementary School - Harrison Cheek - 1st Grade

Harrison Cheek can be seen throughout the day working hard on any task that is given. He always keeps track of what he is supposed to be doing and even reminds staff of what needs to be done. Harrison is such a good classroom helper and always has a positive attitude. He gets along well with all of his classmates and offers help to them as well. Harrison exhibits all our Coleridge expectations - he is responsible, organized, caring, and kind. Coleridge Elementary School is proud to announce Harrison Cheek as our STAR³ Student for February.

Eastern Randolph High School - Noah Yarbrough - 12th Grade

Noah Yarbrough's passion is JROTC, through which he has learned valuable life and leadership skills. The discipline and hard work instilled through JROTC have helped Noah become Cadet Command Sergeant Major, Raider Commander, and Color Guard Commander. In the county Raider competition, Noah won overall first place and two individual awards. He also has earned academic honors and plans to attend Appalachian State University and participate in its ROTC program. After college, Noah plans to enlist in the military. He was a member of the varsity football team and has shown great leadership in our school and community. Eastern Randolph High School is proud of Noah Yarbrough and his commitment to serve our school, community, and country, and we are honored to select him as our STAR³ Student for February.

Farmer Elementary School - Braxton Cumbie - 2nd Grade

Braxton Cumbie is an amazing role model for his classmates. He is always on task and trying his best. Braxton is kind and helpful to others. Even though others may try to distract him, he remains focused and does not let others interfere with his own success. He is determined to be the very best he can be. Braxton always has a smile on his face and it is a joy to watch him "fly high" as a Farmer Falcon. Farmer Elementary School is proud to have Braxton Cumbie as our STAR³ Student for February.

Seagrove Elementary School - Jackson Owens - 3rd Grade

Jackson Owens is a very well-rounded, hard-working student at Seagrove Elementary School. He is always helpful and respectful to his peers and adults. Jackson goes above and beyond in assuring everyone feels included. His positive disposition is a breath of fresh air to everyone. Seagrove Elementary School is proud to call Jackson Owens our STAR³ Student for February.

Southeastern Randolph Middle School - Daysha Isley - 8th Grade

Daysha Isley is a sweet young student with an amazingly positive attitude. She enjoys school and always tries her best in every class. Daysha completes, with a smile, any task asked of her. Her work ethic and desire have helped her achieve honor roll status. Daysha enjoys helping others and participating in classroom discussions. She genuinely cares about the people around her and playing a role in their successes. Daysha is cooperative, attentive, trustworthy and respectful. She is a true Wildcat! Southeastern Randolph Middle School is proud to say that Daysha Isley is our STAR³ Student for February.

Southmont Elementary School - Kyle Bradley - 4th Grade

Kyle Bradley has worked so hard this year! He always comes to class and is ready to work. Kyle puts forth his very best effort in each and every activity. He has overcome many obstacles and he never lets difficulties and challenges stop him from doing the right thing. Kyle, perhaps without even knowing it, shows others how to be a good leader. He also shows kindness to others every day. Kyle is deserving of this recognition because of these attributes. Southmont Elementary School is proud to honor Kyle Bradley as our STAR³ Student for February.

Southwestern Randolph High School - Jonathan Allred - 12th Grade

Jonathan Allred is a hardworking, independent young man who balances school and work with a positive attitude and determination. He is focused on his future and knows and does what is needed to be successful. Jonathan sets goals for himself and works hard to accomplish these goals. He manages his many responsibilities well, with a maturity that is beyond his years, and does not let discouragement get in his way. Jonathan always seeks to make the best out of even difficult situations. He is respectful, well-liked by his teachers and classmates, and sets a positive example for others. For these reasons and more, Southwestern Randolph High School celebrates Jonathan Allred as our STAR³ Student for February.

Southwestern Randolph Middle School - Holly Uribe - 8th Grade

Holly Uribe is an exceptional student. She is polite to everyone she meets and is always willing to help others out when she can. Holly is an active member of the Junior Beta Club and the middle school band. She also has an interest in art and helped create the school's Junior Beta Club 2 dimensional design, which is a banner, for the state competition. Holly maintains a high average in all of her classes; she is a student who exemplifies hard work and respect. Southwestern Randolph Middle School is proud to call Holly Uribe our STAR³ Student for February.

Tabernacle Elementary School - Caylx Donithan - 3rd Grade

Calyx Donithan is a tenderhearted student with a heart of gold who comes to school every day with a happy, positive energy. He shares his kindness with everyone. In the classroom, he does his work to the best of his ability every day. If he sees others having a hard day, Caylx is always there to help or make them smile. He is full of compliments and encouragement for his fellow classmates and teachers. He has made much progress, keeps a smile on our face, and keeps us laughing. Calyx shoots for the stars in everything he does and always tries harder if he seems to be struggling. He is courteous and shows good manners in the classroom. We are proud to have Calyx Donithan as a student at Tabernacle Elementary School, and congratulate him on being our STAR³ Student for February.

Uwharrie Ridge Six-Twelve - Hailey Cranford - 10th Grade

Good moral character, active listener, and genuine are words that encapsulate Hailey Cranford. Hailey goes above and beyond in almost every aspect. She consistently produces detailed, high-quality work, submitted either on-time or ahead of schedule. Hailey helps teachers with projects and errands throughout the school. She engages in school functions and is an active member of her church community. Hailey is also a member of the Student LIFT leadership program, in which students are tasked with completing a large service project. Hailey's project is collecting infant items for "Your Choices Randolph." Hailey maintains a smile and cheer each day, has a great sense of humor, and keeps a positive attitude that lifts up those around her. Hailey Cranford is an ideal student, strong role model, and wonderful human being, and Uwharrie Ridge Six-Twelve is proud to select her as our STAR³ Student for February.

The Virtual Academy at Randolph - Jesse D'Uva - 6th Grade

Jesse D'Uva is hard worker. He is a testament to the adage "hard work beats talent, when talent stops working hard." Jesse is always willing to dedicate time before or after school for tutoring. He has a willingness to learn and grow. Jesse is also uplifting to his classmates and teachers. He always encourages his classmates through the classic "thumbs up" emoji or sending encouraging messages through the Google Chat. Jesse is an awesome big brother - he has been known to rock his baby brother to sleep while engaging in his core classes. Overall, Jesse is a kindhearted, hardworking, compassionate student. We are proud to have Jesse D'Uva as the STAR³ Student for The Virtual Academy at Randolph for February.
