- State Budget--MIRS BREAKING NEWS: Whitmer, Shirkey And Chatfield Reach Agreement: Budget First - 9:03 AM
https://mirsnews.com/alert.php?alert_id=2961
The state's legislative leaders along with Gov. Gretchen WHITMER issued a statement today stating the trio plan to "immediately begin target-setting with legislative and executive leadership to get a budget passed by October 1st."

The statement essentially brings to an end the demands Whitmer had made to tie road funding to the budget and her vows to veto a budget without a road funding solution.

"We have all agreed to continue conversations about road funding in a meaningful way and table all associated issues for the time being," the statement reads. "Right now, our number one priority is getting a budget passed. We look forward to rolling up our sleeves and negotiating on behalf of the people of Michigan."

The resolution apparently came following talks this weekend between Whitmer, Senate Majority Leader Mike SHIRKEY (R-Clark Lake) and House Speaker Lee CHATFIELD (R-Levering).
