

Mrs. Brown's and Mrs. Dickey's Newsletter

10/28/2025

What We're Learning

ELA	Math	Alabama History	Spelling Words
Reading Story: Unit 2 Lesson 4: Godspeed, John Glenn This Week: Regular Plural Nouns - Change y to i and add -es if noun ends in a consonant like in strawberries - Noun ending in a vowel plus y just add -s like in journeys - Noun ending in ch, s, and x add -es like in watches - If a noun ends in f, change the f to v and add -es like in thieves Making Inferences Sequence Text Features- Illustrations Language Arts: Sentences, capitalization, and punctuation Tests: Reading: Thursday Spelling: Thursday Homework: Spiral Reading	We took our Topic 4 test today. We will now move into division. We will divide using partial quotients. You may want to google partial quotients and watch a few videos to help you understand. We are not using the method you learned when you were in school. Homework NO Spiral Math. Multiplication Drills- Practice 15 minutes every night Multiplication.com Auto-scored Quizzes My treasure box is empty. If you can donate a bag of candy it will be very much appreciated. Please make sure your child knows if it is for our classroom or the Fall Fun Day event so it gets to the correct spot.	We are covering week 12 and 13 in Alabama History. We are learning about Alabama in the early 1800s and the Secession of Alabama. Dates to Remember October 30- Parent Picnic @11:33-11:57 the outdoor classroom October 27-31 Red Ribbon Week. Wednesday-Wear Red Thursday-Crazy Hair October 31-Wear your costume Fall Fun Day We need candy donations and parent volunteers for our trunk or treat	1. watches 2. toolboxes 3. eyelashes 4. addresses 5. calves 6. scarves 7. thieves 8. beliefs 9. journeys 10. kidneys 11. monkeys 12. fireflies 13. strawberries 14. supplies 15. avocados 16. pianos 17. potatoes 18. volcanoes 19. computers 20. earthquakes Challenge Word: echoes Vocabulary 1.degree-a title given by a school or college to a student who has finished a course of study 2.citation-a formal public statement that praises a person for doing something good or brave 3.experimental-from or relating to experiments 4.ultimately-in the end 5.due to-because of 6.conducted-controlled or managed 7.tuned in-listened to or viewed on a radio or television 8.material-what something is made of or used for 9.malfunction-a failure to function or work correctly 10.quest-a search or pursuit

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to e-mail us tiffany.brown@acboe.net and amanda.dickey@acboe.net