Fall is Coming and so is our Quilt Auction!

Life is never dull here at the Galilean Home! As soon as the kids head back to school, we know it's time to gear up for our Quilt Auction, and can you believe it – this year marks our 35th anniversary! Time sure does fly! As always, we have a big schedule planned for that weekend. Our residents have been practicing for their program which they will perform on Friday night. This year they are being led by Fredy Caballero, who grew up here at the home and is now on staff. He's pulling out some of the music we did in days gone by during our years of traveling for singing trips. It should be a lot of fun! Friday starts with supper at 4:00 and the program starting at 6:00 with our craft auction to follow. The next day we will have a pancake breakfast starting at 7:00 a.m. and the auction will begin at 10:00. Be sure to join us October 13 & 14. It's a beautiful time of the year to visit!

It's hard to believe that we are almost a month into this new school year. The Lord has blessed us with some wonderful new students and teachers this year and we are excited to continue to welcome them into our Eagle family. The first couple of chapel services have been powerful! God has blessed us with His presence and has been working in our hearts. The Lady Eagle Volleyball Team has started off on fire by going 3 and 1 in their region. We are expecting them to do big things in the KCAA this year and next. They are a young team that should return all players from this season with much more experience for next season. Our GCA Fall Festival is on September 29 from 5pm to 8 pm., which is just around the corner, and we are excited as this anticipated annual event sets closer. God is blessing and we are grateful for all that He does for us at GCA. Between celebrating birthdays, welcoming new faces, prepping for the Auction, and the usual day to day here at the Galilean Home, there hasn't been a dull moment in the last month or so.

There have been a lot of folks coming and going around here. We were thankful to have Esther Yoder as a short-term volunteer for two months. It's always nice to have extra hands helping. It helps take the load off our full-time caregivers.

We have welcomed a new resident to our Galilean family. Eliza has a big smile and is full of life. We have all enjoyed having her around. She says she thinks it's very beautiful here in Kentucky and she loves working with Connie doing the laundry.

What a HUGE blessing we received recently when a work team of 30 people from Pennsylvania stayed with us a whole week. Boy did they get a lot done! From cleaning up around the property to prep work for quilt auction, they came at just the time we needed them. But isn't that how God works?

A big thank you to all of you wonderful people who keep checking in and generously pick up items for us. Right now, our most urgent needs are vinyl gloves for our hardworking team, Ensure, and medium-sized adult diapers. These are the things we tend to run out of quickly, and we truly appreciate your help in keeping us stocked up!

Come visit sometime! We always welcome visitors around here and we would love to see you at the quilt auction in October!
