In Retrospect, 1983-84

No other image seemed to catch the eye so often this past year as the American flag: fluttering over bunkers in Beirut and beaches in the Caribbean; mocked and defaced at antinuclear rallies in Europe; draped over hundreds of coffins bearing fallen servicemen; hanging at half-staff from buildings to honor those slain in Granada and Lebanon. This year ABC's "The Day After" brought home the agonies of ordinary people as they dealt with the horror of nuclear war. Marked by personal tragedy and consuming ambition, the life of newswoman Jessica Savich ended in a freak car crash. Happily, this year will be remembered too for a supersonic flight by an astronaut named Sally Ride. This year, it wasn't enough just to hear rock, as videos, led by Michael Jackson, changed people's response to music and rejuvenated the record business. After the Americans' successful trip to Sarajevo for the Winter Olympics, they will host the Summer Games in Los Angeles, with continued opposition from the Soviet Union. This year offered Mr. "T" as a legend in gold, and the Democratic fight for the nomination to run for the presidency in November 1984, with Mondale, Hart, and Jackson competing.

ABOVE: A scene from the world-shaking movie "The Day After." Gary Hart, Jesse Jackson, Democrats who hoped to be nominated for President by their party.

RIGHT: A view of our American soliders fighting for liberty, freedom, and world peace.

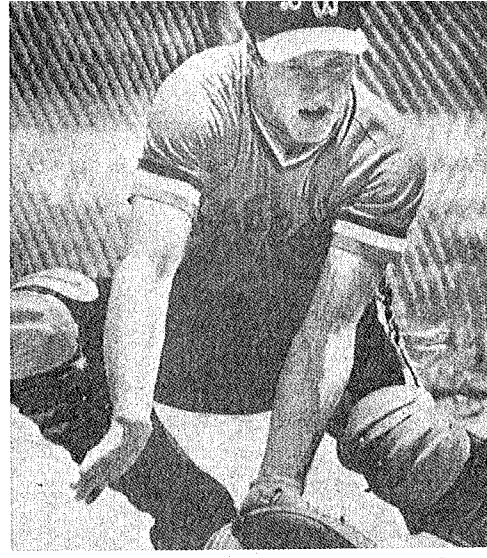

TOP: Mr. "T" shows off his gold collection. Scott Hamilton wins the Gold for the U.S.! The summer games are to be held in Los Angeles. MIDDLE: Who's going to be the next president — the one with the beef! BOTTOM: Sally Ride — our first woman astronaut, Michael Jackson the "Superstar," and the late Jessica Savich.

In Closing

As Editor-in-Chief of the Crown Jewel, I would like to take this opportunity to express my thanks to the many people who contributed to the production of this book. First, I would like to thank the teachers for allowing our photographers to interrupt their classes to take the many pictures that appear in this book. Thanks also go to the administration for their complete cooperation in our ad sales, candy sales, and the slide show presentation. To the staff and Mrs. Hunt, thanks for never giving up, even when it seemed as if we would never finish. Finally, to my classmates, the seniors, thanks for all the great times, and good luck in your future endeavors. May this book be a collection of memories to cherish forever.

Memorably yours,
Susan Barber

As Co-Editor of the 1984 yearbook, I would like to give my thanks and appreciation to all who helped make this yearbook the best ever. Special thanks must go to the Annual Staff who worked so hard and faithfully throughout the year. I would like to thank Mrs. Hunt for giving me the chance to design a yearbook and watch it come alive throughout the year. But most of all, I'd like to thank my close friends and family, for without their support I would never have accepted this position. I hope everyone's dreams see reality and I know that the class of '85 will do their best to make the Lake Wales High School faculty proud to have known us!!

Sincerely yours,
Tracy Higbee
