Trump Promises Faith Leaders Direct Access to the Oval Office

President Donald Trump has pledged to give faith leaders direct access to him in the Oval Office if he wins the upcoming election. Addressing the audience last Monday at the National Faith Summit in Powder Springs, Georgia, Trump promised to reinstate the Faith Office that he initially established during his first term, underscoring the essential role of religion in the nation.

Highlights from Letters to Power 88

I love the variety of Christian music and the upcoming events announcements. I have been listening for a great number of years and it just keeps getting better. Keep up the great work for the Lord, you will never know who God is speaking to through y'all!!!!
