Mr. Gunn stated that USDA Rural Development wants us to hold a ribbon cutting ceremony/grand opening and he asked the Board of thoughts on how we should do it.

CACS Financial Statements

Mr. Gunn shared the statements and pointed out specific line items to show that the income and expenses were in line and whether funds were received from the school district.

Executive Director's Report

Mr. Gunn stated that the annual audit is underway, but it must be to FLDOE by December 1st, otherwise our Capital Outlay Funds for the year will be withheld. He said that he did not like Crossroad's name being associated with anything negative or listed in the Auditor General's Report.

Board Member Concerns

Members discussed the CACS Board Committee, whether it would begin meeting again and if it was still necessary since the Administrative Staff present reports at each Board Meeting.
Rev. Daniel Wells stated he would meet with Principal Galloway to see if, when, and how they would like to proceed.
