

SIR Report Analysis

2019-2020 & 2020-2021

After reviewing the Bessemer City Schools (BCS) School Incident Report (SIR) Reports for SY2020 and 2021, Fighting stands out as the most documented disciplinary infraction, followed by Disorderly Conduct, Unauthorized Absence and Threats/Intimidation. The customary consequence for fighting is Out of School Suspension. This infraction amounted to 345 incidents that resulted in Out of School Suspensions for those students. In order to tackle the issues that leads to fighting, BCS has employed several strategies.

To address the reasons behind what causes many of the fights within our system, we knew that we needed to address the Social and Emotional needs of our students. To assist with meeting those needs, BCS employs both a Mental Health Specialist and a Social Worker. We understand that until the social and emotional needs of the child is met, punitive punishment will not be as effective. It is also our goal to keep our students in school as much as possible, which has led to a focus on creating a stronger In-School Suspension program and incorporating Problem Solving Teams with Positive Behavior Intervention Supports in all schools.

The BCS Mental Health Specialist and School Counselors hold counseling sessions with students and parents. We provide mentors for students with discipline problems and incentives for students with good behavior. We also utilize PEER Helpers that employs the PATH curriculum that provides Curriculum and Intervention Strategies to students that have discipline, behavior and/or Social Emotional challenges. We also have several prevention policies in place such as the Jamari Terrell Williams Student Bullying Prevention Policy and Erin's Law. BCS has also implemented a District Wide Safety Team that works in alliance with our School Resource Officers to ensure that our students feel safe within our schools.

Referral to BCS New Horizon Alternative School is used for repeat offenders and/ or the nature of the infraction. In order to minimize placement at our alternative school, BCS with the assistance of the AT-RISK Grant has been able to provide a Full Time Alternative School counselor whose goal is to provide the emotional and social support for those students attending the alternative school.

BCS also works with several community liaisons, such as Helping Families Imitative and the educational liaison/probation officer for Jefferson County Family Court. We will also assist any parent struggling with discipline issues at home in filing a C.H.I.N.S. (Child in Need of Supervision) report.

BCS strives to ensure the long-term success for all of students as such we understand that in order to minimize discipline infractions we must meet the needs of the whole child. As a result, we seek to employ multiple strategies to assist us.
