Public Presentation:

Duane Ghost Dog approached the school board requesting money for students to attend All- West in Denver a high school basketball tournament. He stated that there were some students who attends Crazy Horse School that wanted to go. Any monetary donation would be appreciated. The Superintedent stated that we intend to take our own team because the kids asked. If he wanted a monetary donation submit a official proposal to the superintendent stating exactly the students from Crazy Horse School he intednts to take and amount requested and we would see if we had the fund and then officially propose to the school board.
