

Student Health – Physical Distancing During Health Emergency

Students, staff, volunteers, and visitors may maintain a six-foot social distance between themselves and other people throughout the school day in any District building, on school provided transportation, and on District property before and after school. Staff members will attempt to arrange classrooms and restructure courses, transportation services, and food services to meet this standard to the best of their ability.

Policy History:

Adopted on: August 2020

Revised on:

Reviewed on: