About IDYCA

The Idaho Youth ChalleNGe Academy is Idaho's premier academic intervention for at-risk youth. The ideal candidate will have a desire to work with at-risk youth who live in a residential setting. IDYCA provides excellent staff support for academics, handling the majority of discipline and parent/guardian interaction. Teamwork is emphasized in getting these Idaho at-risk youth prepared to return to school and/or the workforce. The selected candidate will be expected to accomplish all program specific training in a timely manner.

Applicants must be proficient in oral and written communication and have a solid understanding of Microsoft Office and Google Classroom applications. The School District uses the Skyward student management system. IDYCA operates on an alternate calendar than the local school district with seven additional compensated contract days for the spring session. The school year consists of two sessions with the first one running approximately mid-July through mid-December and the second session running mid-January through mid-June with additional staff training required. The candidate hired will receive a contract for thirteen added days with additional compensation.

This is a great opportunity to make a long-term impact with at-risk students in a short amount of time. To learn more about why the Idaho Youth Challenge Academy is a premier place to work, please contact Principal Hill, contact information below.
