Dear parishioners,

This week, I will be away Tuesday and Wednesday for Pastoral Leader Days in Willmar. These were virtual since winter of 2020 (right before the original COVID restrictions), so it will be good to be in person. Our presenters are Dr. Mary Healy and Bp. Drew Cozzens, both of which I expect to be spiritually rich messages.

Dr. Healy will share about the scriptures and the Holy Spirit, and Bp. Cozzens will speak on the Eucharist and the priestly vocation. The time together is also for interpersonal interactions – the conversation between friends and coworkers in the Lord's Vineyard. To avoid added travel, I will be staying with my mother a few blocks away from the church. Please keep us in prayer.

With a few weeks of Sunday FIRE done, I want to thank those that are making it possible. I have been told that the food and conversation has been great. Last week, we began a four-video series on the Eucharist – and it is beautifully done. If you cannot be at the morning presentation, please see our AFC website or St. Edward's FaceBook page for the links.

As we continue to deal with the COVID crisis, just a few reminders. If you are not comfortable with the exchange of peace through shaking of hands, please feel free to abstain. While we still have the obligation of Mass attendance on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation, if you are sick or providing care to someone who is sick, the obligation is lifted (this has always been the case).

Please err on the side of caution – if you have the symptoms of COVID (loss of sense of smell or taste, fever, cough, etc.), stay home. We also need to balance things – the spiritual needs are as important (if not more) as the physical, and honestly it has always been 'dangerous'. We take 'calculated risks' all the time. We cannot cower longing for absolute safety. While we can acknowledge the serious nature of this virus, we also do not need to live in fear.

In Christ,
Fr. Todd

For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve others

and to give his life as a ransom for many.

THE BOOK OF THE DEAD

Parishes have a custom of giving a place of honor to a book in which members of the parish, community members and visitors write the names of their beloved dead. This practice provides the living with an opportunity for healing and consolation in the face of grief. The Book of the Dead will be displayed from the solemnity of All Saints until the beginning of Advent. It is left open for people to write the names of their deceased loved ones and for others to read the names, remember, and pray for the repose of their souls. Remembering all of these men and women who have gone before us, “marked with the sign of faith,” helps us better understand and appreciate our faith in the Christ our risen Lord who conquers sin and death and brings new life to all.

At this time The Book of the Dead will be placed in the back of the church and then will be placed at the front of the church during the month of November. This book is for anyone who wishes to add the names of their deceased loved ones. During the All Souls Day Mass and the Masses in November, we will pray for those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith.

BOXES OF JOY

During the month of October we will be collecting items to fill the Box of Joy. These boxes of joy will go to children around the world that have never received a gift before along with teaching about Jesus and the good news, some evangelizing. There are children in this world that have never heard of Jesus. In the beginning of November they will be collected, processed and shipped.

Items we are collecting to fill the boxes -

Toys: deflated balls with a pump, small cars and trucks, dolls, stuffed animals, finger puppets

School supplies: colored pencils, crayons, water colors, colored pens, small notebooks,

Apparel: socks, shorts, T-shirts, flip-flops hats, sunglasses, shoelaces

Hygiene: brush, sturdy cup, bottle with lid, bar soap, toothbrush and floss

Accessories: watch, purse, wallet, necklace, headband, barrettes, bracelets, cross, rosary

There is a box in the back of church to collect the items.

Thank you for your generosity to help children around the world!

OCTOBER IS RESPECT LIFE MONTH

The Diary of an Unborn Child, circa Awake! May 22, 1980. My adoptive parents had saved a newspaper clipping of this for me that I was able to read after finding out about surviving the saline infusion abortion. Such a sad but true account of what I, and all of the unborn who are aborted face:

The Diary of an Unborn Child

OCTOBER 5: Today my life began. My parents do not know it yet, but it is I already. And I am to be a girl. I shall have blond hair and blue eyes. Just about everything is settled though, even the fact that I shall love flowers.

OCTOBER 19: Some say that I am not a real person yet, that only my mother exists. But I am a real person, just as a small crumb of bread is yet truly bread. My mother is. And I am.

OCTOBER 23: My mouth is just beginning to open now. Just think, in a year or so I shall be laughing and later talking. I know what my first word will be: MAMA.

OCTOBER 25: My heart began to beat today all by itself. From now on it shall gently beat for the rest of my life without ever stopping to rest! And after many years it will tire. It will stop, and then I shall die.

NOVEMBER 2: I am growing a bit every day. My arms and legs are beginning to take shape. But I have to wait a long time yet before those little legs will raise me to my mother's arms, before these little arms will be able to gather flowers and embrace my father.

NOVEMBER 12: Tiny fingers are beginning to form on my hands. Funny how small they are! I'll be able to stroke my mother's hair with them.

NOVEMBER 20: It wasn't until today that the doctor told mom that I am living here under her heart. Oh, how happy she must be! Are you happy, mom?

NOVEMBER 25: My mom and dad are probably thinking about a name for me. But they don't even know that I am a little girl. I want to be called Kathy. I am getting so big already.

DECEMBER 10: My hair is growing. It is smooth and bright and shiny. I wonder what kind of hair mom has?

DECEMBER 13: I am just about able to see. It is dark around me. When mom brings me into the world it will be full of sunshine and flowers. But what I want more than anything is to see my mom. How do you look, Mom?

DECEMBER 24: I wonder if Mom hears the whispering of my heart? Some children come into the world a little sick. But my heart is strong and healthy. It beats so evenly: tup-tup, tup-tup. You'll have a healthy little daughter, Mom!

DECEMBER 28: Today my mother killed me.
