meet expectations. In reading, 2nd did not meet but 3rd, 4th, and 5th did meet. Westside showed consistent growth from last year to this year in all grades (3rd - 5th) in comparison to the other Elementary Schools on GMAS.

- VII. Report of Principal: Angienik Allen, Principal- The contractors did not have the plans ready when they came to inspect the school. The environmentalist came so we are still awaiting that report. The building has been rekeyed. This was a county-wide procedure. They will share the plans once they are complete. A plan is being developed to pack the school and prepare for renovation.
- VIII. Old Business- In need of one more member as a business partner.
- IX. New Business- Barbara has looked into getting a yearly stone for 5th grade to be able to leave something memorable behind.
- X. Adjournment- The meeting was motioned to be adjourned (1st -Shorter/ 2nd- B. Vogh)
