POSITIVE THINKING

Share Your Happy Moments

One way to savor the happy moments we experience is to stop and share them with others. The more you share good times with those around you, the more others will be inspired to do the same. You can start a chain reaction simply by sharing good news. The next time something good happens; make a phone call, send a text, have a conversation, write a letter. Share your good news - and ask others to do the same - to build positivity in your community.

SPORTS ACTION

Boys 9th Basketball: Congratulations to the Chemic freshman basketball team on their dominant 53-27 victory over Saginaw Heritage last night! Leading the charge for the Chemics was Caysen Weideman with 15 points, while Eli Rohr contributed with 9 points. The defense was key in the win, with Andrew Davis, Aaden Mastaw, and Lucas Dooley playing outstanding, smothering defense throughout the game. With this victory, the Chemics improve to an impressive 8-5-1 record on the season. Their next game is this Thursday at home, where they'll take on Mt. Pleasant. Tip-off is at 4 PM, so come out and support the team as they look to continue their strong season! Go Chemics!

Boys JV Basketball: Midland fell to Heritage 38-71. Callum paced the Chemics with 12 points, while Gibbs added 9. Kevin and Zeph brought a spark on defense in the fourth quarter, providing key energy down the stretch.

Boys Varsity Basketball: The Chemics faced a tough challenge Tuesday night, as they were overpowered by the Hawks, ultimately falling 83-39. The game began with a slow start for the Chemics, who quickly found themselves trailing 24-6 at the end of the first quarter. Despite the early deficit, the team showed some resilience as they regrouped and battled through the second and third quarters, only losing those periods by six points. While the Chemics were unable to close the gap, their performance in the middle stretches of the game highlighted their competitive spirit. The team has shown flashes of strong basketball, but inconsistency continues to be a challenge. With continued focus and improvement, there's hope they can build on these moments and find a rhythm moving forward. Leading the charge for the Chemics was Liam Heinz, who contributed 15 points, while Jacoby Lind added 12, including a highlight-reel two-handed dunk that energized his team. The Chemics will look to bounce back this Friday as they take on Mt. Pleasant. It's clear the team has the talent, but they'll need to stay consistent if they're to turn their fortunes around in upcoming matchups.

Girls JV Basketball: MHS fell to Heritage 37-41. I couldn't be prouder of these girls; they worked hard but fell short against a tough Saginaw Heritage team. Olivia Wiggins and Cady McPeak lead the way with 8 points each. McPeak adding 9 rebounds and Wiggins with 5 steals. Jasmyn Dawson with 6 points for the night. Hannah Murtha with 5 points and a huge defensive stance! Morgan Palmer and Brynn Haddad with a great game adding in 4 points and 5 points, Haddad with 5 boards and 2 blocks Palmer adding 4 assists. Next game is away against the Mount Pleasant Oilers

Girls Varsity Basketball: The Chemics took down state ranked Saginaw Heritage last night in commanding fashion with a final score of 53-36. In a game of few turnovers and strong defense by both teams, the Chemics got the edge by out rebounding the Hawks 36-25. Three Chemics lead in scoring with 12 points each, Jensyn Ardouin, Ellee Arnold and Payton Palmer. Of the Chemics 23 baskets 14 of them were assisted with Kiaya Mahabir dishing 5 of them. The Chemics are currently 11-1 and 4-0 in the SVL.
