

SGSC PARENT NEWSLETTER

DECEMBER 6-10, 2021

FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Good afternoon Everyone,

We are so excited to see our students this week! This past week was an eventful week with the Homecoming Days! We thank you all for allowing your children to participate and sending them to school each week with such school spirit!

We continue to focus on attendance and academics for our students! We ask that you all be an active part in both of these important factors affecting education. For attendance, please send your children to school each and every day and provide an excuse if they must miss a day! For academics, talk with your child and ask them what they are learning, log into Infinite Campus and see if they are missing assignments...these two steps can bridge the gap between home and school.

SGSC would like to give a huge shout out to Mr. Mark Gill and Mrs. Renee Gill for all that they do for our school! Mr. Mark brought all of his equipment and was the DJ for the Homecoming Dance. Mrs. Renee Gill brought food and helped to chaperone the dance. They are invaluable members of our school community! We also would like to thank the Proud Aggie Grandparents (PAG) group for bringing in the food and drinks for the Homecoming Dance! When we all work together - the students benefit!

We are so thankful for our staff at SGSC! If you would like to nominate a Staff member for a SHOUT OUT, please click the link below to complete the form! Thanks so much for recognizing our staff and all of their efforts!

FROM MS. MCBRIDE...

Teaching children an attitude of gratitude requires helping them to look at their situations from a point of appreciation rather than from a deficit.

How do we, as parents or educators, teach children such an abstract skill?

1. Say please and thank you

Our manners show that we do not believe we are entitled to anything, and that in fact, we appreciate whatever comes our way.

2. Share your gratitude at bedtime.

Take five minutes at the end of the day to ask your child what he is thankful for that day.

3. Create a family gratitude journal.

Leave it somewhere where everyone can access it and encourage your family to write in it whenever they are feeling grateful.

4. Ask why.

As your child gets better at expressing gratitude, dig deeper. Ask why he is grateful for something and how it affects his day.

5. Work through envy

Help your child work through any feelings of jealousy she may have. Envy can come when we are not feeling thankful for what we have, and are focusing instead on what others have.

Dear Parents and Staff,

Our school has several local children and families that need help this holiday season. Southwest Georgia STEM Charter School wants to give you the opportunity to bless a child's family this holiday by providing them with needed items.

SGSC will be hosting a "Giving Tree". The tree will be set up in the front office. It will have ornaments that will contain needed items for a particular child and a few possible wants. If you would like to host a child in need, please take an ornament off the tree and provide NEW gifts from the wish list provided. You will need to sign this ornament out in the front office so that we know which family is taking the ornament and is responsible.

We only ask that all the family gifts (unwrapped) be placed neatly into a large bag and attach the families ornament tag to the bag. Please do not wrap the gifts. You are welcome to provide gift-wrap for the family, if you choose, just add it to the bag. Please do not include any personal notes to the child/family or any personal monogrammed items. These family bags will be delivered on December 20th. All bags need to be in to the school counselor by December 17th.

Thank you for giving back to the community this holiday season. You are helping families in need have a very blessed holiday. If you have any questions, or if you would like a gift tag sent home and cannot come to school to pick one up, please contact school counselor at enrich@swgstemcharter.org to make arrangements.

I hope you can travel with us this week to support our Aggie basketball teams. We have had a great season of home games this year also.
