FREE OFF-SITE PROGRAM

In conjunction with the Hunterdon Art Museum's exhibition, COMPANION SPECIES (AT WHAT COST): THE WORKS OF MARIE WATT

JANUARY 16, 2022, FROM 11:00AM - 2:00PM
MARC STRAUS GALLERY (NYC)/ SEWING CIRCLE WITH ARTIST MARIE WATT

Please check website for further information.

OFF-SITE EVENT Marie Watt is a member of the Seneca Nation of Indians and also has German-Scot ancestry. Sewing Circles are an essential part of her work. Gather together with others to stitch pre-selected words onto panels made from pieces of reclaimed wool blankets. The panels often start with Indigenous points of view that become touchstones for cross-cultural knowledge sharing and connection between participants. Watt incorporates the panels into future artwork. In exchange for your time and stitches, you will receive a limited-edition print from the artist.

Watt's Sewing Circles have taken place in numerous locations, including the Peabody Essex Museum, the National Gallery of Canada, and the Yale University Art Gallery.

Walk-ins are welcome but RSVPs are encouraged for this event. Masks and proof of vaccination are required to participate.

This program is made possible by generous funding from The Coby Foundation, Ltd.
