"We Freshmen Love those SENIORS"

There are good times and there are times like these.

Gigolo

MEMBER AT BHS!

See my new Calvin Kleins, Keith?

VICTORY and SENIORS . . . What a pair

Remember when Donald passed American History?

And now . . . IT'S EVIE!

And here they are, the Locker Room Hotsie Totsies.

The Physical Education Models.

Is the gang all here!

We Stick Together

Sophomores Got That Groove

Smile, You Are On Candid Camera

Aw, Everybody Knows Us

One Big Family

Sophomores Will Win The Spirit Stick Next Time

Friends Forever

When's The Game Gonna Start?

Brains Don't Just Study!!

Keep Off The Grass

The Indians Were Here

Do We Have To Go To Class?

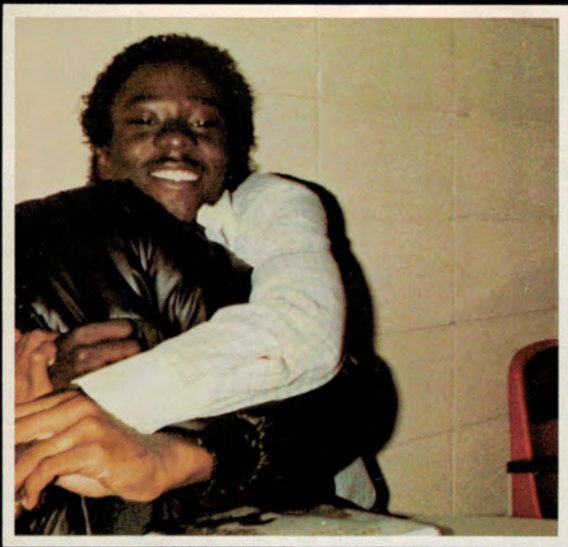

Come On Smile, You'll Like It

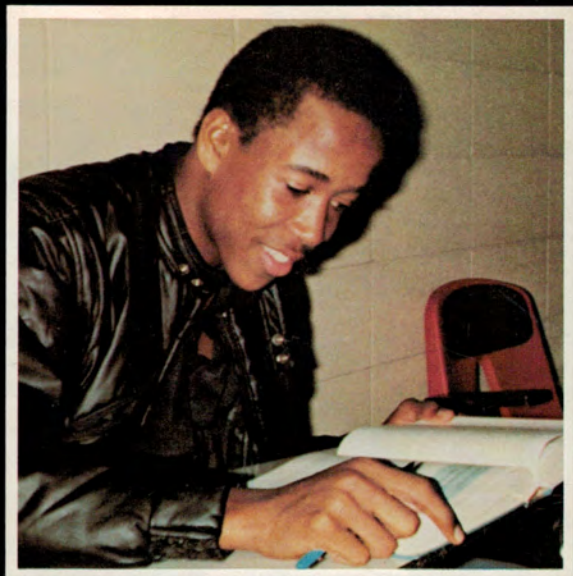

Say "Cheese"!!!

Caught Ya In the Act!

Find a new friend, Marty?

Remember when Keith studied?

SMART CHICK

The SENIORS leave their mark again.

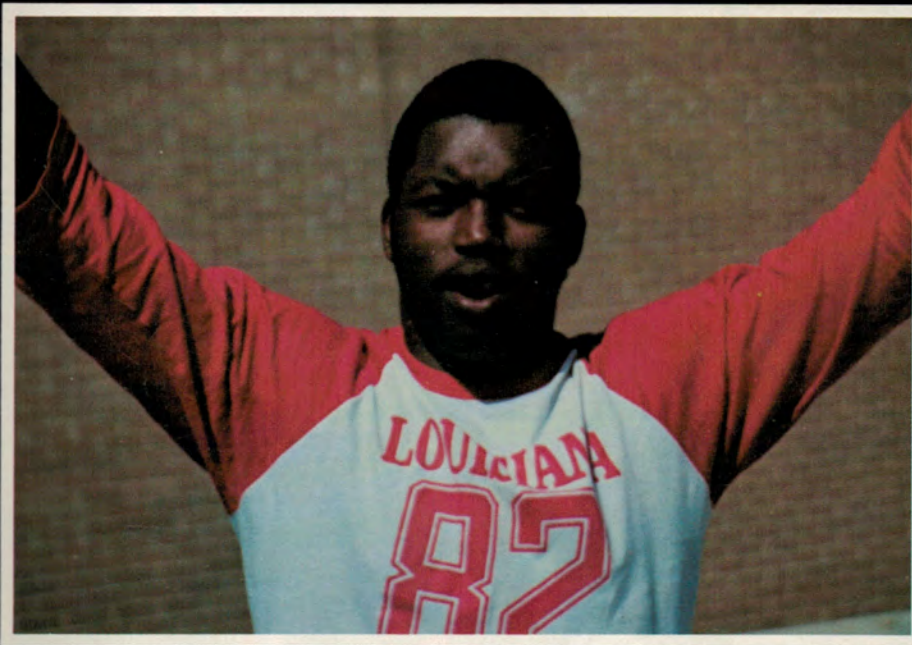

TAH-DAH!

"We Gonna Rock this Town Tonight"

"Steve you look so innocent"

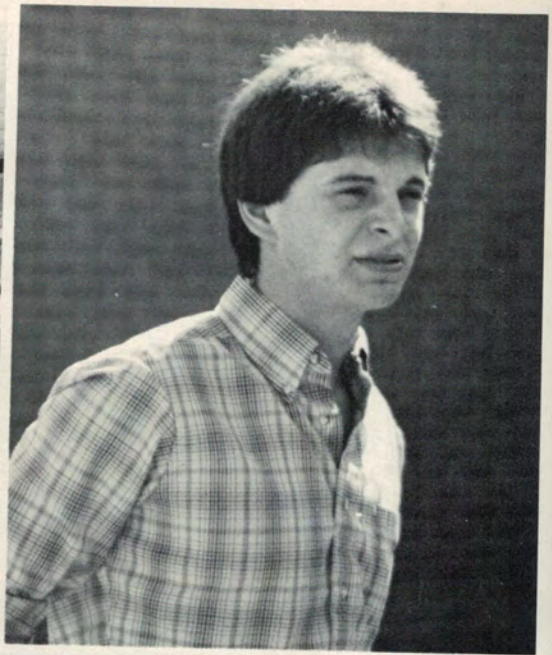

Remember when Kendrick tried out a new DEODORANT?

CHRISTMAS

The Christmas play was presented by the Speech and Drama department. The title of the play was "Dust On The Christmas Star" by Albert Hawse. This excellent drama emphasizes the unselfish love Christ gave us at Christmas. Kate Sherman, a main character played by Yolanda Johnson grieves over her daughter's death on New Year's Eve and finds it almost impossible to show her affection and love for her granddaughter Tammy, nor will she allow any evidences of Christmas decorations in the house. She also refuses to permit Tammy any part in services at the church. Tammy's wanting to see Christmas celebrated the way she remembers, and the way she thinks it should be, is the keypoint throughout the play.

THE CAST: RACHEL TOLLIVER, YOLANDA JOHNSON, BRUCE JACKSON, EVELYN TRACY, SCOTTY NICHOLSON, SHURANDA BUTLER, AND JERRY HARRIS.
