Georgia's Virtual Library
GALILEO®
An Initiative of the University System of Georgia

You may also access the information on this flyer at:
https://libguides.galileo.usg.edu/c.php?g=1008358

Using GALILEO at Home

A guide for students and parents

1

Know the password!

To access GALILEO resources, you will need your school's password. Write it here in the circle so you don't forget.
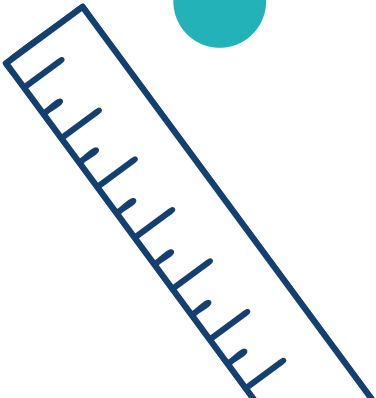

MY PASSWORD:

. . . .

2

Go to the GALILEO website.

Using any search engine, type: galileo.usg.edu. On the homepage, you will see a "welcome to GALILEO" message and a log-in box. Type your school's password into the log-in box.
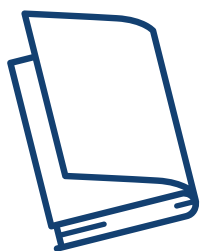

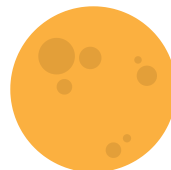

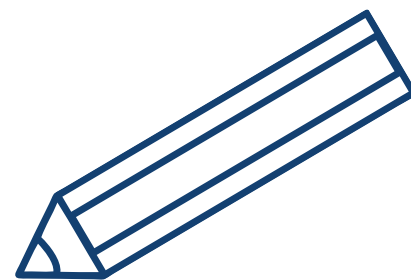

3

Pick your view.

There are three school views: Kids, Middle School and High School. Pick the view that corresponds to your student's age and grade level.

Need help?

If you're having trouble, select the "contact" button on the homepage, and then send us your question.

Featured resources for grades 9-12:

eBooks High School Collection
This resource provides more than 3,000 e-books for students and teachers.

Advanced Placement Source
The database contains 5,700+ full-text journals and 300,000+ photos, maps and flags. Subject areas include: math, physics, chemistry, biology, computer science, psychology, economics/statistics, government/politics, history, the arts and more.

Explora for High School
Students can browse topics of interest or search for a topic of their choice. Search results can be limited to source type.

Academic Search Complete
This article database provides full text of information in many areas of academic study, including archaeology, astronomy, biology, chemistry, civil engineering, electrical engineering, and more.

SIRS Discoverer
The database includes full-text articles/images from 1,000+ newspapers, magazines, and government documents.