- In honor of Black History Month, we are having a bit of trivia today! This is how we will play: Every student is eligible to play each day. You may take your trivia answer to Mrs. Donna Hill. Please write your answer on a full piece of paper with the date, your name, and grade level indicated. All correct answers will be placed in a bucket and one will be selected to win a candy bar. Our first trivia question is: Who Am I? My career spanned five decades and I am considered one of the most influential musicians in the history of jazz. I was born in New Orleans and dropped out of school when I was eleven, but I did not let that stop me! I worked hard to help my family get by and eventually a kind man gave me an advance on my wages so that I could buy a coronet. I quickly progressed to the trumpet and was considered a real talent! I became very popular in the 1920s as an inventive trumpet player and moved to New York. As radio, tv, and film became popular, so did I! I became known as a national musical icon, but you may just call me by my nickname, "Satchmo." Who am I?
