Get Started

STEP 1:

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar of the California Colleges website. The 'Career' link is underlined. A dropdown menu is open, listing various career-related tools. 'Interest Profiler' is circled in red, with a red arrow pointing to it. Other items in the menu include 'Work Values', 'Intelligences', 'Personality', 'Skills', 'Learn about Career Assessments', 'Career Options', 'Career Search Tool', and 'Choosing a Career'. A 'Get Started' button is visible at the bottom of the dropdown.

Your Interest Profile

You may have interests in each area, and some areas that match you best. Think about your profile as you explore careers on the next page.

Investigative

People with Investigative interests like searching for facts and coming up with ideas to solve problems. They enjoy thinking more than working with their hands or leading other people.

Artistic

People with Artistic interests like work that allows them to express themselves, such as acting, music, art, or design. They prefer being creative to following a set of rules.

Social

People with Social interests like working with people instead of objects, machines, or information. They like to teach, give advice, or help people.
