Due Dates:

3rd Monday in September for
1st semester award

AND

1st Monday in January for
2nd semester award

Madeline M. Bauer was born in Sanilac County. She moved to the Ubly area early in her life. She worked for the REA which is now known as the Thumb Electric Cooperative. She became a very active member of the Ubly Library Board and served as an officer for many years. She lived close to the Ubly School and became committed to supporting the advanced education of its students. She attended Our Savior Lutheran Church of Bad Axe and was very active in church affairs for many years. She was also aware of the many benefits the Huron Area Technical Center (HATC) offers to students who attend that institution. She died at the age of 95 and established scholarships for students of the Ubly School District and the Huron Area Technical Center (HATC) in her Last Will and Testament.
