When You Were Little... What Did You Want to be?

When I was little I wanted to be a police officer, so that I could chase people at high speeds.

-Adrian Bowen

When I was little I pretty much wanted to be a cowboy!

-Adam Parker

When I was little I wanted to be a basketball player. I wanted to be in the WNBA.

-LaQuita Rogers

When I was little I wanted to be a lawyer.

-Teshika Cousin

When I was younger I wanted to be a superhero, so that I could save the world like Superman and fly.

-Kentralle Goodwin

When I was little I wanted to be a vet, so that I could play with little animals.

FFA is a long-standing tradition here at CHS. It is the oldest organization that's associated with CHS. Traveling on agriculture-related field trips, livestock showings, and the STATE FFA Convention, this club represents it's name -Future Farmers Of America- well. They participate in community service projects, and at the end of each year, there are contests and award ceremonies.

The French Exchange Program is a bi-annual exchange of students from our sister school in France to CHS. The exchange gives students a chance to broaden their horizons by traveling to France and experiencing French culture firsthand. Students of the host families decide to come to America to expand their knowledge of our American culture. Mrs. Daugherty oversees the exchange.

Ashley,

On Sept. 18, 1987 God blessed our lives with a beautiful baby girl. We were so proud of that little baby. You are grown up now, and you are still blessing our lives. In my heart you will always be that little baby girl, and I hope I have blessed your life as much as you have blessed mine. My prayers and thoughts will always be with you. I'm proud of you and will always love you.

Love Always,
Maw Maw

Ashley,

I can't believe you are graduating from high school. I want you to know I'm proud of the young woman you have become, and I'm looking forward to seeing what your future holds for you. You are a sweet and compassionate person, and those traits are rare in our society. I love you and will always be here when you need me.

Up!

From a precious baby girl to a beautiful young woman, you have made us so proud.

¡Nunca abandonar lo que tu saber es la verdadera voluntad de Dios para tu vida!
~~Mama

As you embark on life's journey & spread your wings, remember these few simple things. First & foremost: Matthew 6:33.

Attitude is everything. Life gives you what you settle for, but nothing is impossible if you want it bad enough so "don't ever give up."

And last: the hardest part is letting you go... but the proudest part is knowing you can go and be the best you can be!

No matter how far you go, always know you'll always be Daddy's Baby Girl. We love you & are very proud of you!
Daddy, Lisa, Jennifer, Laura & Grandma

We'll never understand why God chose to bless our family in such a special way. But we are so very thankful that He placed you in our lives. No matter what you do or where you go in life, never forget that we will always be here for you, continually lifting you up in prayer. Always remember who you are!

Love,
Mama & Mike
Nanny & Papaw

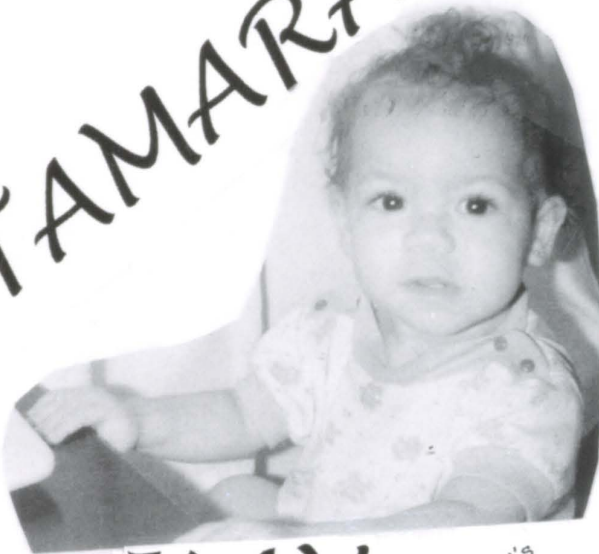

Thank you for always being here for me.
I love you!

To the Only "Baby Girl"
 You have made my life complete. Now it's your turn to complete yours. From the time you were born, you were the apple of my eye, now you have showed me. Actions speak louder than words.
 Go Ahead with your "Bad Self", Baby Girl.
 I Will Forever Love You.

Love Always,
 Granny
 & Papa

To the Daughter I never knew I had and the Little Girl that has become a Woman,
 From the C's to the D's to the B's to the A's. For the A's that I was happy about, to the B's I could get by with, to the C's and D's that I cried about. You gave 150 % when all that was asked from you was 110 %. From the proms that you looked forward too, that didn't turn out so great. You went back to do your best, and to try to do even more. I'm just as proud of you now, as I have always been. No one could ask any more of you, and no one could expect any less of you, because you have always done your best. No one could have any more of an honor than what I have of you, Tamara, by calling me "Dad". And being my daughter. I love you very much. Congratulations on Your Graduation.

Diddy

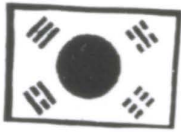

Tam,

How do I begin to tell you how I feel about you graduating? Well I think you know, from all the tears I have shed over the last year. Tears of joy, because you have accomplished a goal that has sometimes been difficult. And I have been a witness to it for 13 years. Tears of sorrow, because my little girl is grown up now. And I have watched you grow into a very beautiful young woman, full of character and determination. But today through all of the tears, my heart smiles just as big and wide as it did the day you were born. Because you are my daughter, and I am so very very proud of you. Today is the 1st day of the rest of your life. Live it to it's fullest always.

When you believe you can, the world opens up to you in so many marvelous ways! The sun shines brighter, opportunities become stepping-stones to future achievements, and those dreams you've tucked away suddenly seem worth reaching for. As one door closes, another one opens, and you have the optimism to walk through it and give it your best. Suddenly, difficulties aren't so devastating because they are viewed as opportunities to build your strength. With each step you take, another lesson is learned, and with each mistake you make, growth is achieved. Life is truly a wonderful adventure, so get out there and explore it! The world needs you, for you're unique and have those special qualities that can make a wonderful difference in so many ways. When you believe you can, you'll discover that even though the world may not be easy, faith can lift you above the rushing tides and give you wings you never knew you had!

Victoria,

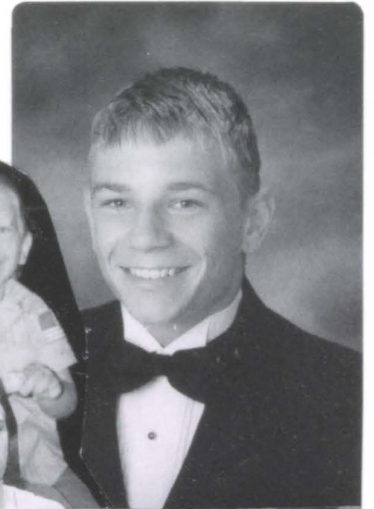

Where has the time gone? It feels like only yesterday you were our baby. There have been good times and bad but you have grown through it all. You are a beautiful young lady who is an amazing daughter, sister, friend and believer in GOD. You mean so much to all of us. You have blessed our lives and all those around you. May you grow and continue to grace the world with your devious smile and contagious laughter.

All our love,
Maha, Shawn, D, Mom,
Jason, Jerico and Alyssa

DUSTIN TYLER PATTERSON
 WE ARE SO VERY PROUD OF YOU!!!!
 WE LOVE YOU VERY MUCH!!!!!!
 DAD, MOM, BRANDON AND HEATHER

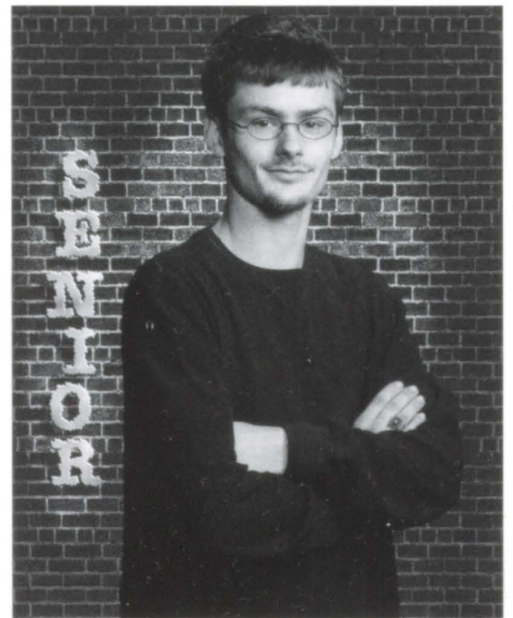

CONGRATULATIONS!
DANNY GRAY
