Lutz is currently not receiving meals at school 100% Virtual Learners Food Model – Food will be produced at Sterling Heights HS for a one week distribution on Wednesdays. 8 buses will go down to Sterling on Wednesdays arriving at approximately 10:30. They'll pick up their bulk meal kits in thermal coolers and deliver to our 8 buildings. They are Bozymowski, Flynn, Maple Lane, Rockwell, Neil Reid, Bovenschen, Glen Peters, and Lutz. After in school lunch service has ended, the food staff will add milks to these meals, and there will be a bulk distribution at each building in the early afternoon. We are working with Transportation to determine the times buses arrive at the building, to determine the distribution times. We are trying to have the pick up time between the end of lunch service and bus pickup. A/B Cohort Schedule – Is taking place at Glen Peters, Bovenschen, and Lutz. 3 buses will go down to Sterling Heights HS on Monday and Tuesday of each week at approximately 10:30 am. They'll pick up two days' worth of meals for one cohort on Monday, and those meals will be distributed on the bus routes for the in person learners to take home with them. The same will happen on Tuesday for the other cohort of in person learners. For both the virtual leaners and cohorts, if there are any hardship cases, we discussed having buses deliver those meals directly to the student's home. The intended startup date for the Cohorts Food Model is Monday, October 19th, and the 100% Virtual Learners is Wednesday October 21st.
