

WCSD Featured Story

News Stories from Across Williamsburg County School District

Provided by the Office of Public Relations of Williamsburg County School District

INTERVIEW OF

MR. EARNEST TAYLOR

HEAD COACH OF THE HEMINGWAY
TIGERS BOYS BASKETBALL TEAM

Q: Who do you think your team will be most excited about playing?

A: Traditionally our team is most excited about playing our rivals Kingstree and Johnsonville.

Q: Will you be playing in any tournaments this season?

A: Yes, we have Carver's Bay Jam Georgetown Shootout.

Q: What do you usually do after losing a game?

A: After losing a game is to put it past me, and fix mistakes that will allow us to get better. Of course, we want to win the next game.

Q: Who are your key returning players?

Hemingway Tigers' key returning players are: Darrion Cooper, Omar Cullum, Zavon Woods, Derick Mccray

Q: How many years have you been coaching?

I have been coaching for 28 years Last 4 at Hemingway High School.

Q: What do you think will be your team's strengths?

I think that our strength will be our defense.

Q: What can fans expect to see from your team this season?

A: Fans can expect 100% effort from our team this year.

Q: At the end of the season, do you think you will be playing for a region or state title ?

A: Playing for a region title or state title is always the goal, but we will see how this season unfolds.

