1. Welcome and Call to Order

The meeting was called to order by Dr. Miliner. Mrs. DeVoursney, Dr. Miliner, Mr. Clark, Mrs. Ditzel, Mr. Brooks, and Mr. George were in attendance.

2. Inspiration

We recently had an school oratorical contest. Chase Farmer was our school winner and competed at the county level.

3. Pledge of Allegiance

4. Approval of Agenda

The agenda was approved by Mr. Clark and a second motion was made by Mr. Brooks.

5. Recognition of Visitors/Introductions- no visitors

6. Report of Principal

- a. Quail Run Elementary won the Title I school of distinction. Distinguished Schools are among the highest-performing 5% of Title I Schoolwide and Title I Targeted Assistance schools based on the combined ELA and math content mastery scores from the statewide assessments of the most recent year.
- b. Military Flagship award- We received the military flagship award for outstanding dedication to military students and families. Quail Run Elementary is the only school in our county without a military counselor or representative that won this award.
- c. Dr. Scott and Dr. Rogers observed Quail Run Elementary for our SIP visit. Every teacher at QRES received proficient scores and one teacher received an exemplary score.
- d. GMAS Testing is April 16th-April 23rd. There will be re-takes this school year and it will happen during the school year rather than during the summer. The re-testing dates will be May 13th and 14th. If students fail the retake, then a retention conference will be held over the summer.
- e. 5th grade students went to their upcoming middle schools on a field trip last week.
- f. Quail Run has a new assistant principal of instruction. Her name is Jessica Augsburger and she will be starting in the 25-26 school year.
- g. Quail Run attended the Houston County job fair. We have several new hires that will be great additions to our school year.
- h. Spring Break Mar 31st- April 4th

i. Elections for next year's council will be on May 8th in the Media Center
