A squad that cheers you on. A chance to try new things. That's what being a Girl Scout is all about.

What do Girl Scouts do?

Every Girl Scout has their own curiosity, dreams, and talents—so when they come together to decide which of the thousands of Girl Scout activities to try, the sky's the limit. Whether visiting an animal shelter, camping, hosting a dance-off, or filming a movie—they're learning to take risks, trust their gut, and team up with others for good.

The secret sauce holding it all together? Joy.

Forever friendship is a powerful thing. It's what gives Girl Scouts the confidence to be themselves, unapologetically. It's what makes them feel safe enough to try new things and cheer each other on in tough times. It's the support that can get them up on tough mornings, help them raise their hand in class, and even climb to the top of a mountain.

What grades can participate?

Girl Scouts can begin in kindergarten and join all the way through 12th grade.

Are uniforms required?

No, but some troops love to wear a sash or vest to proudly show off all the awesome badges and patches they've earned on their Girl Scout adventures!

What is the cost?

Girl Scouts of Kentuckiana believes that costs should never be a barrier to join. Membership dues are $40 annually, and financial assistance is available.

How often do Girl Scouts meet?

Each troop sets its own schedule, so it varies! Every troop is different. However, troops typically meet twice a month for about an hour or two at a time.
