Jacobson Memorial Hospital Foundation offers scholarship

The Jacobson Memorial Hospital Foundation is offering a $500 scholarship to an area student or students. Information has been shared with area high school counselors and an application is available at jacobsonhospital.org.

Applicants must submit the application and short essay by Feb. 1. High school seniors and college students may apply, with preference given to those seeking a medical-related career.

The Foundation is a nonprofit organization formed to raise funds to help financially support the vital, lifesaving services of the Jacobson Memorial Hospital Care Center in Elgin, with clinics in Elgin, Glen Ullin and Richardton.

“The Foundation’s mission is to support the important mission of JMHCC and this is another way to help educate more health care workers and encourage them to move back to the area following their education,” said JMHCC CEO Scott Brooks.

JMHCC employs more than 100 employees in a variety of careers. Those with questions should contact JMHCC CEO Scott Brooks at 584-2792.
