Lori R. Cobb, M.Ed.

lcobb@jp2falcons.org

DISCLAIMER

INFORMATION GIVEN IS GENERAL AND MAY NOT APPLY TO EVERY COLLEGE. FOR SPECIFIC COLLEGE INFORMATION, CONTACT MRS. COBB & COLLEGE REPS.

College and Testing Information

If unsure of admission requirements or testing information for a particular college, contact Mrs. Cobb or the admissions representative.

Be careful of getting info from other parents, teachers, coaches, or students.

TRANSCRIPTS

- Transcripts may only be requested by the student in their Naviance account
- Official transcripts will not be ready until mid August
- Will send an unofficial transcript to parents/students by email listed in FACTS in June
  - Make sure to check transcript for any issues and let Mr. Hill know for any corrections.
- Will take two to three weeks to process transcripts at a college
- Selective colleges will recalculate grades from a transcript
- We are non-ranking school
- We are on a 4.5 not a 4.0 scale
- AP & Dual Enrollment receive 0.5 qualifier
- Turn in Official Transcript Release Form before requesting any transcripts(Handout)
- Check to make sure you are on track to graduate for credits
- Colleges will check the rigor of your course even senior year
- Grades count senior year, even after a student has been accepted!!

Graduation VBC

Thursday, May 23, 2024, 4:00 – 6:00 pm

All seniors will be given 14 tickets
(6 preferred and 8 general seating)

All dates Graduation and Senior Events are subject to change

Save The Date(s)

Senior Fall Meeting - 8/2 4:30 PM in the MPR.

This meeting will include any changes to admissions and paying for college. Will have several colleges available to discuss changes in admissions for 2023-2024 admission cycle.

More information sent out at the end of June.

Common App Workshops

Sign-up for one of the Common Application Workshops on 6/6-6/22, and 8/5-8/20. You only need to attend one workshop if you will apply via the Common Application in the fall.

Parents - Students must fill out their own Common Application.

Summer To Do List

- Located in Naviance with hyperlinks
- See Handout

Service Hours

- X2VOL is separating from Naviance
- Please complete your service hours and enter into X2VOL. They must be completed by the end of 1st semester of senior year.
  - 5 juniors that have “0” hours
  - 35 juniors that have less than “75” hours
- Hours are prorated by years of attendance
- All must be completed by end of the 1st semester to be exempt for senior exams.

ACT/SAT

- A lot of colleges are remaining test-optional for 2023-2024
- Retaking your ACT or SAT can boost your chances for selective colleges and scholarships
- JP2 will offer an ACT Prep Class in the fall with Achievement Plus for the December ACT
- Lots of other test companies offer ACT and/or SAT prep classes
- Some (not all) colleges will Super Score for admissions and/or scholarships
- WE DO NOT SEND TEST SCORES
- May still need for English or Math placement in college

There are still several juniors that have not taken their ACT/SAT.

If applying to a highly selective school
make sure to have a Plan B and/or C.
Please check Naviance to see if you are a good match for this college.

How you compare with others who have applied to University of Notre Dame

This institution is a Match: Your academic qualifications (GPA & test scores) are similar to the academic profile of students nationally who are typically enrolled at this institution.

Naviance

- Make sure to have a list of at least 6-9 colleges listed in “Colleges I’m Thinking About”
- Will move over in July/August to “Colleges I’m Applying to”
- Update Resume (Must be in Naviance)
- Fill out Senior Brag Sheet
- You can still add to your list Senior Year, but try to be ready to start applying in August

College Reps & Visits

- Senior Year - Make sure to visit the reps when they come either during Power Hour, before or after school next year
- Visit college campus over the summer
- You will have 3 college visits for Senior year
- Make sure to set up an appointment with the Financial Aid Office when visiting colleges and the disability office regarding documentation needed in college for accommodations.

College Applications

College Applications

- Most college applications will not open up until August 1st - Common Application.
- Be careful not to apply to the wrong admissions cycle (Apply fall 2024, not spring 2024).
- Try to have 6-9 colleges to apply to in the August.
- Check Naviance for admission stats

Direct to the Institution

- Apply directly to the college from their website
- Create an account for every school
- Request transcript in Naviance
- Sometimes easier than the Common Application

Common Application

- Not as Common as it seems
- Colleges add additional questions/essays besides the required essay, may have specific supplements and restrictions, and may require additional material
- If it says “Optional,” go ahead and complete. It is not optional for admission to selective schools. If it is not required, you do not have to complete.
- Will rank on academic achievement, extracurricular achievement, and personal qualities and character
- Lists the highest GPA in the class
- Make sure to mark Common App in Naviance

Applications To Avoid If Possible

- Universal College Application
- Coalition Application

STUDENTS: WHICH COLLEGE ADMISSION PROCESS BEST SUITS YOU?

Non-Restrictive Application Plans

Regular Decision

DEFINITION:

Students submit an application by a specified date and receive a decision in a clearly stated period of time.

COMMITMENT:

NON-BINDING

Rolling Admission

DEFINITION:

Institutions review applications as they are submitted and render admission decisions throughout the admission cycle.

COMMITMENT:

Early Action (EA)

DEFINITION:

Students apply early and receive a decision well in advance of the institution's regular response date.

COMMITMENT:

NON-BINDING

Students are not restricted from applying to other institutions and have until May 1 to consider their options and confirm enrollment.

Restrictive Application Plans

Early Decision (ED)

DEFINITION:

Students make a commitment to a first-choice institution where, if admitted they definitely will enroll. The application deadline and decision deadline occur early.

COMMITMENT:

BINDING

Restrictive Early Action (REA)

DEFINITION:

Students apply to an institution of preference and receive a decision early. They may be restricted from applying ED or EA or REA to other institutions. If offered enrollment, they have until May 1 to confirm.

COMMITMENT:

NON-BINDING

Students are responsible for determining and following restrictions.

Early Decision (ED) I & II(See Handout)

- Contractually Binding
- Can't Apply ED to another college/university
- Must attend college/university if admitted
- Deadline for ED I mid October to November
- Admissions notification usually early December
- Pool of candidates might be smaller but still competitive, so make sure you have the grades and test scores for a particular college/university

Early Action (EA)(See Handout)

- Non-Binding
- Can Apply EA to other colleges/universities
- Deadline typically between Mid-October and early November
- Admissions notification typically late December
- Restrictive Early Action is non-binding but may restrict the number of schools you may apply to EA.

Regular Decision(See Handout)

- No limit to the number of colleges/universities you can apply to
- Deadlines are typically early January or February

Rolling Admissions

- May apply as late as even July.
- There may still be certain deadlines for scholarships.

Always check each college/university for its decision policy and guidelines.

Honors Colleges

- May require a separate application.
- Higher admissions qualifications than the university admissions qualifications than the university requirements.
- Graduation requirements (Minimum GPA, minimum hours of Honors courses, etc.).
- Provide small, rigorous learning environment with designated classes across other schools and colleges (College of Business, Arts and Sciences, etc.).
- Typically provide separate housing.
- Many Perks
- Priority Registration
- Individualized Advisement
- Assistance with prestigious scholarships, fellowships, and internships.
- Separate facilities
- Special events
- ALWAYS CHECK THE COLLEGE/UNIVERSITY FOR ITS POLICIES.

AP Credits at College

- Check with college/university for its policy on credit for AP classes (see catalog)
- What score is required
- General Curriculum
- Honors college/program
- How is credit awarded
- Actual credit hours
- Prerequisite for higher level courses
- Could always consider CLEP exams
- Consider potential danger in skipping that college course

Hard Deadlines

- Application
  - Depends on choice of admission decision
- Housing
  - Must apply for housing by a certain deadline
  - Must pay deposit by certain deadline
- Financial Aid
  - Complete FAFSA by certain deadline. Opens October 1st
- Scholarships
  - Institutional
  - Private - will update list in Naviance Student

Keep a consolidated calendar for all dates and deadlines

Essays (Handout -Common App Essay Prompts) & Letters of Recommendations

Know the Purpose of a College Essay

- Add “flavor” to your application.
- Evaluate your writing skills.
- A measure of your interest.
- Looking for creativity.

Keep Your Audience In Mind

- 2-3 minutes per essay.
- Lots of readers.
- Emotional impression about you, not an intellectual impression about your topic.
- Goal: “I really like this student.”

It's All About YOU!

- Think of a dressed-up version of emailing a good friend.
- Be yourself!
- Remember: Personality, personality, personality!

- They read your transcript to see what kind of student you are; they read your essay to see what kind of person you are.

What Should I Write About?

- Write what you know.
- Personal statement vs. research paper.
- Be Yourself! What makes you unique?
- Consider the word limit.
- Avoid big topics & long stories.
- Don't bargain on the personality of your reader.

A Few Writing Tips

- Write more than one essay!
- Grab your reader's attention in the first sentence.
- Final draft needs a thesis statement & organization.
- Be concise.
- When in doubt, throw it out and start again!

Avoid Clichés...

- My mission trip to _____ , where I met _____ , changed my life.
- A college education is important because _____ .
- The death of _____ taught me to embrace life.
- I scored the winning _____ in the last seconds of the game.
- In the end, I realized all of my hard work was worth it.
- Concluding with, "...and then I woke up."

Other Things to Avoid

- Expressions of self-pity, whining, boasting, sarcasm, bitterness, arrogance.
- Slang, profanity, bad grammar, incorrect spelling.
- Too much thesaurus.
- Exceeding the word count.
- Sports injury stories.
- Mission Trips.
- Political Extremism.

PROOFREADING!!!

- Leave plenty of time for proofreading by others.
- Beware of personality edits.
- Choose “who” and “how many” carefully.
- Proof a printed draft.

Know the Purpose of a Recommendation Letter

- Add a sense of a student's contributions to the classroom, school, and community.
- Allow the college to learn how others perceive the student.
- Allow the college to understand intangibles about the student.

Types of Recommendation Letters

- School/College Counselor Letters (No need to request for Common App, I will automatically write a counselor report)
- Teacher Letters
- Community Letters

Start thinking about recommenders over the summer, but do not request recommendations until August in Naviance.

School/College Counselor Letters

- Summarizes the whole student.
- Can focus on personal setback, structural impediments that affected a student's ability to certain courses, the student's aspirations, hopes, and dreams.
- Describes the student within the whole community and within the rigor of the school.
- All-Encompassing.

Teacher Letters

- Shows the lens of the learner.
- Explains how the student makes an impact in the classroom, on their peers, and how they react to challenges within the classroom.
- Focuses specifically on academics.
- Subject-Specific.

Community Letters

- Highlights attributes and contributions to community, team, workplace.
- Explains what makes the student stand out from peers.
- Broader Focus.
- Can include a coach, mentor, employer.

Asking for Letters (Start in August)

- Carefully choose your recommenders.
- Clearly define what you are asking the recommender to do.
- Give recommenders at least two weeks notice.
- Clearly state deadlines and preferred method of submission - Naviance or another application.

Asking for Letters

- It may help to have a conversation with your recommender, discussing the following:
  - Why do you want to attend ___ College?
  - Why do you like it?
  - What attributes would you contribute to the college campus?
  - What are your strengths?
  - How have you demonstrated independence, initiative, responsibility, and/or maturity?
  - What are your favorite activities?
  - What have you done that makes you proud?
- Make sure Resume is up to date and fill out Brag Sheet in Naviance.

Final Notes

- Choosing a recommender that can speak to your abilities is key.
- The best recommendations are honest and thorough:
  - Waiving your FERPA rights can help ensure all of your recommendation letters will be honest.
  - It signifies to college admission committees that each writer is being candid and has your support.
- Consider selecting for all colleges in Naviance Student versus for a specific college when requesting letter of recommendations.

Final Thoughts “Before You Click Submit”

- Know the name of your college you are applying to
- Know your deadlines!
- Check for spelling
- Be honest on your applications
- Read everything, including fine print!!
- Please be nice to admission counselors
- Fee Waivers – Must qualify for free and reduced lunch at a public school
- Start turning in all acceptances and scholarship information to counseling office
- Don’t forget to send a “Thank You” email in the spring, even if declining the offer.
- Your emergency is not always my emergency

State colleges will be available at the Senior Meeting in August to go over specific merit scholarships.

Student's and Parent's Role

- STUDENT SHOULD HAVE THE STARRING ROLE IN THIS PROCESS.
- STUDENT SHOULD COMPLETE THE APPLICATION/ESSAYS AND REQUEST TRANSCRIPTS.
- PARENTS CAN CHECK FOR SPELLING.
- STUDENTS - DO NOT LOSE YOUR VOICE.
- PARENTS SHOULD BE SUPPORTIVE – TRY TO AVOID NAGGING.
- PARENTS CAN HELP STUDENT MANAGING DEADLINES.
- PARENTS WILL NEED TO PROVIDE FINANCIAL INFORMATION FOR FAFSA. EXPLAIN ANY FINANCIAL BOUNDARIES OR GEOGRAPHIC LIMITS TO YOUR CHILD.

Fall Senior Meeting Dates

Senior Fall Meeting 8/2 4:30 PM the MPR. I will send more information around the end of June. Will have info on scholarships, paying for college, FAFSA, etc...
