

Former Level Cross Staff Member Donates Sign to School

Level Cross Elementary School would like to formally thank former head custodian EL Lambert, who donated our new sign in honor of our school's first principal, Cathy Brady! We would also like to thank the Level Cross PTO for its assistance with getting the sign connected. With the help from these folks, our community will now have better communication from our school!