Parish Vision Statement:

To be a spiritual Catholic Family focused on prayer as well as service to the Gospel through a Sacramental life. We envision our Parish as a community of stewards dedicated to building up the Body of Christ through active ministry while living the example of simplicity, humility, confidence and love of our Patroness, St. Therese of Lisieux.

HOW ARE CATHOLICS TO HANDLE PROBLEMATIC WEDDINGS?

From Catholics United for the Faith (Submitted by Ruben Beltran, Confirmation Coordinator)

"I Do."

Do I ?!

Does the Catholic Church prohibit Catholics from attending weddings that the Church does not recognize? If a Catholic is invited to such a wedding and can attend, is it permissible for him to be in the wedding party?

The Catholic Church does not explicitly prohibit Catholics from attending weddings whose validity she does not recognize. There are certain moral principles, however, that should be considered before a Catholic decides how to proceed. Most importantly, Catholics must avoid any actions that cause scandal or encourage others to sin. In today's society, many couples live together before marriage, and divorce and remarriage are common. In addition, many Catholics marry outside the Church. Couples in these situations commit the sins of fornication or adultery. Because of these objectively sinful circumstances, Christians are often left in a quandary when they are invited to weddings the Church does not recognize; particularly when friends or relatives are involved. The way in which one prayerfully responds to these invitations must witness to the truths taught by Christ. Our actions must encourage and promote the salvation of all.

In continuing the work of Christ, the Church, without compromising her own holiness, embraces sinners and cleanses them with her sacraments (cf. Catechism, no. 827). Following Jesus' example, we need to associate with fellow sinners, yet do so in a way that is ordered to their salvation and ours. If we allow or participate in the sin of another, we share that sin and its consequences. As the Catechism teaches, "Sin is a personal act. Moreover, we have a responsibility for the sins committed by others when we cooperate in them by 1) participating directly and voluntarily in them; 2) ordering, advising, praising, or approving them; 3) not disclosing or not hindering them when we have an obligation to do so; and 4) protecting evil-doers" (no. 1868).

Anyone who uses the power at his disposal in such a way that it leads others to do wrong becomes guilty of scandal and responsible for the evil that he has directly or indirectly encouraged. "Temptations to sin are sure to come; but woe to him by whom they come!" [Lk. 17:1] (nos. 2284, 2287). Fornication and adultery are grave violations of the Sixth Commandment (cf. Catechism, nos. 2331–2400). Those who persist in these sins endanger their salvation. Living together before marriage typically implies fornication (cf. Catechism, no. 2353). The subsequent marriage of the couple does not blot out the sins they already committed, nor does the wedding itself necessarily change their attitudes or habits toward chastity and purity. Remarriage following divorce is an act of adultery, whether or not the "spouses" are Catholic (cf. Mk. 10:10–12; Catechism, no. 2384). When a Catholic marries outside the Church, the union is considered illicit.

If a Catholic is asked to attend the wedding of a couple whose marriage is not recognized by the Church, he should ask himself: "What message will I send by my attendance? Will attending such a wedding encourage or hinder the salvation of others? What will not attending accomplish? If I go, will others consider my presence to be affirming of the sin? Will I commit scandal? How can I best witness to the truth?" A Catholic should not affirm fornication or adultery, nor should he give the appearance to others that he condones the acts. Such appearance can cause scandal. If his actions affirm or encourage the sin, he participates in the sin.

There is a real concern that if a person refuses to attend the wedding, a rift in friendship could occur. This division could hinder any witness to the truth, and this concern is especially serious if the wedding involves a close friend or family member. This concern alone must not hinder our witness (cf. Lk. 12:51–53), but it can guide our actions as we fulfill our obligation to bring others to Christ. It could be that not attending would destroy any possible chance to witness the truth to the persons involved, especially if no reason is given for not attending. It could also be that not attending, and giving reasons for the absence, will help the couple choose the way of Christ. If a Catholic chooses to attend, he will want to ensure that no one considers his presence to be an affirmation of the sin.

These principles apply whether one is a member of the wedding party, is attending the wedding, or is simply attending the reception. Participating in the wedding party, however, is more visible and will generally be understood as an affirmation of the union. It would be very difficult for a member of the wedding party to attend without affirming the situation or at least giving the impression to others that he is doing so. All who attend the reception should consider that discussions about the couple and their life together will arise. This may be more difficult for some people to handle without affirming the couple's situation or bringing scandal to others. If one plans to attend the reception, one should consider what one will say about the couple's situation when the merriment begins and everyone is talking about how wonderful this "marriage" is.

Morally speaking, there are many factors to consider before we judge such participation to be scandalous. Some situations are more conducive to scandal than others. Before we can witness to the truth, people must be open to what we have to say. In the same way, before our actions cause scandal, people have to consider our actions worthy of notice. What is important to remember is that we must prayerfully consider the situation, our response, and the probable reaction of others to our response. Using the teachings explained in the Catechism, we should ask ourselves, "How can we avoid participating in their sin, yet encourage their salvation? How can we avoid scandal, yet encourage the salvation of others?"

It is wise for anyone in this situation to discuss the matter with a spiritual director or confessor before making a decision. Whatever one's decision may be, a Catholic should strive to give a clear and charitable witness to the faith. The Church does not teach whether we must or must not attend such a wedding. Christ does say we must witness to the truth in a charitable manner. If loved ones or friends go through with the wedding, a Catholic should look for opportunities to maintain contact and witness to the truth. Above all, our decisions and actions must promote the salvation of souls. In fostering the salvation of souls, the two great commandments are fulfilled.

MINISTRY TRAINING DAY FOR NEW AND CURRENT LITURGICAL MINISTERS

DATE: THIS COMING Saturday, August 13
 TIME: Between 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.
 PLACE: St. Therese Church
 SESSIONS LED BY: Fr. Philip and Fr. Charles
 WHO SHOULD ATTEND: All current and new liturgical ministers

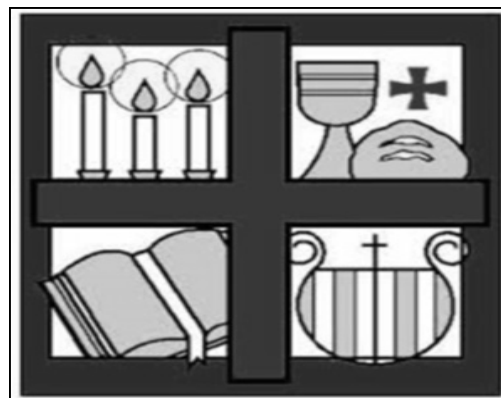

Thank you to all those who have responded to our call for more Liturgical Ministers. We appreciate your interest in assisting the priests at our Masses. By your attendance at one or more of the below three training sessions, you will be given an opportunity to prayerfully discern whether you are called to serve or to continue to serve in one or more of these ministries. Attendance is not a commitment to serve but will help in your discernment process. Liturgy means the "work of the people." The priests need our help to ensure each Mass is assisted smoothly and reverently. Good liturgy is:

- Essential for the spiritual well-being of any faith community;
- Takes planning and preparation;
- Intentionally incorporates the varied gifts of the community;
- Reflects the fullness and universality of God's Church.

Please attend any session in which you are serving or have an interest. The lunch is for all attendees. No registration is necessary.

The schedule for the training day is as follows:

✠ SACRISTANS: 10:00 to 11:00 a.m.

- Sacristans (after training, will be assigned to serve at the Saturday 5:00 p.m. OR Sunday 7:30 a.m. or 5:00 p.m. Masses and at the weekday Masses)

LUNCH (provided for everyone): 11:00 a.m. to Noon in the Guadalupe Courtyard

✠ EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION: Noon to 1:00 p.m.

- Extraordinary Eucharistic Ministers (after training, will be assigned to serve at the Saturday 5:00 p.m. or Sunday 7:30, 9:00, 11:00 a.m. or 5:00 p.m. Masses)

✠ LECTORS AND USHERS: 1:00 to 2:00 p.m.

- Lectors (after training, will be assigned to serve at the Saturday 5:00 p.m. OR Sunday 9:00 a.m., 11:00 a.m., or 5:00 p.m. Masses)
- Ushers (will be assigned to serve at all Masses)

For more information, contact Rhonda Storey, Director of Religious Education, at 284-0020 (225).

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN—

DID YOU KNOW? How do parents handle an admission of abuse? No parent wants their children to suffer from abuse of any kind. However, if a child discloses any instance of abuse, how you handle this information is critical to their well-being.

One of the most important things you can do when a child discloses their abuse is to not overreact, despite the strong and often overwhelming emotions of anger that you'd experience at that moment. Be certain that you show the child great love and concern through calm, reflective words of understanding and compassion.

For a copy of the Virtus® article "After Abuse is Disclosed" and more tips on how to handle abuse disclosures email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.

PLEASE WELCOME FR. MARK LANE AND UNBOUND MINISTRIES!

Fr. Mark will speak at all of this weekend's Masses about UNBOUND. This International nonprofit organization, founded by lay Catholics, seeks people to sponsor a child, a youth, or an elder from a poor country. Unbound works with the poor families to determine what they need most; and then match them up with sponsors whose monthly contribution of $36 provides these families with access to education, food, health care, and more.

Please see the insert in this bulletin, which includes a sponsor form. Please consider helping this very important ministry.

Father Mark Lane is a priest of the Oratory Parish of St. Boniface in Brooklyn, N.Y. Ordained in Sydney, Australia in 1983, Father Lane came to the U.S. in 1991. In addition to serving as pastor, Father Lane has worked in publishing and served as a hospital chaplain and theology professor. Several trips to Kenya were a turning point for Father Lane, and it set him on a journey that eventually led to Unbound.

"I love that through our preaching we can help create relationships that will be beneficial in surprising and rewarding ways for both sponsors and sponsored persons."

"Going Deeper," Adult Ed Series on the Faith

Is there logical proof that God exists? Can we know the purpose of human life? St. Therese Church is proud to host a new weekly series that will attempt to answer questions like these. "Going Deeper," by parishioner/producer Leo Severino (known for his films Bella and Little Boy), is being published as a set of books by Ignatius Press. We're pleased to offer a live preview of this series, in discussion format, each Wednesday at 7:30 p.m., in the Avila Room in the Parish offices

You should attend this series if you want to enhance your understanding of the Faith by learning more about many Church subjects, including:

- God, His purposes and designs;
- Jesus and his fulfillment of the great covenants to accomplish humanity's salvation;
- The original Church founded by Christ upon the apostles and guided by the Holy Spirit;
- The Bible and its centrality to Christian and Catholic life and liturgy;
- Mary and the saints;
- The sacraments of Eucharist and Reconciliation;
  - The Ordained Priesthood; and
  - Making moral decisions in one's daily life.

MASS TO CELEBRATE THE CANONIZATION OF MOTHER TERESA

Our 9:00 a.m. Mass on Sunday, September 4th, will be a special celebration marking the Canonization of Mother Teresa that same day. Mother Teresa was widely known as a living saint for her ministry to the sick and the dying and for her challenging, inspirational words. Born in an Albanian family in what is now part of Macedonia, she went to India in 1929 as a Sister of Loreto and in 1950 founded the Missionaries of Charity. Mother Teresa died on September 5, 1997, and was beatified only six years later, on October 19, 2003. Her feast day is September 5.

A special image of Mother Teresa will be displayed during the Mass, and the Alhambra Missionaries of Charity will serve as lectors. One of them will also deliver a special meditation. The Missionaries will also have a Novena from August 26 through September 3.

ATTENTION: ALL GRANDPARENTS!

You are invited to a meeting to discover how we can support and assist our children with their own families. The meeting will be held in the Parish Hall on Monday, August 22, at 7 p.m.

For more information or for questions, call Susana Martinez at 289- 9362.

Mother Teresa once said, “A sacrifice to be real must cost, must hurt, must empty ourselves. The fruit of silence is prayer, the fruit of prayer is faith, the fruit of faith is love, the fruit of love is service, the fruit of service is peace.” She also said, “give yourself fully to God. He will use you to accomplish great things on the condition that you believe much more in His love than in your own weakness.”

Society expanding Holidays like Christmas and Halloween." All are welcome!

PERPETUAL ADORATION

"Spending time before the Blessed Sacrament we learn to know more deeply the One who gave Himself totally, so that we may become disciples and in turn enter into this great act of giving, for the glory of God and the salvation of the world... Through adoration, the Christian mysteriously contributes to the radical transformation of the world and to the sowing of the Gospel. Anyone who prays to the Savior draws the whole world with him and raises it to God. Those who stand before the Lord are presenting to Christ all those who do not know Him or are far from Him; they keep watch in His presence on their behalf." -St. John Paul II

To commit to coming to the chapel for the same hour each week, please contact the coordinator, Ruben Beltran, at 284-0020, ext. 235, or rubenconfirmation@yahoo.com.

Are you a member of the Knights of Columbus?

If you are a Catholic male 18 or over and not in the Knights, here are five reasons we encourage you to join us: 1) The heartbeat of the Knights is service; 2) The support the Catholic Church with outreach and financial help; 3) We are pro-family; 4) we are strongly and devoutly pro-life; and 5) we are faithful to the Catholic Church.

For more information, call the Alhambra Grand Knight, Mike Stauffer, at 310-916-8419.
