

Dear St. Anne Families,

September 12, 2025

Thank you to all the parents who joined us for Parent Night this past week. We are truly grateful that you took the time to attend the Grades 1–5 Parent Night on Wednesday, September 10, as well as the Grades 6–8 Parent Night on Thursday, September 11. It was such a joy to meet so many of you, to share the wonderful things happening at St. Anne School, and to begin building the home-school partnership that is so important to your child's success.

We are blessed with a strong, faith-filled community, and your presence and support are a vital part of what makes our school so special. Thank you for entrusting us with your children each day.

As we look ahead, here are a few important reminders and upcoming events:

- Scholastic Book Fair – Our Book Fair will be held next week, Tuesday, September 16 through Thursday, September 18. This is always an exciting opportunity for students to discover new stories and grow their love for reading. We encourage you to join your child in selecting books, and we thank you in advance for supporting this event.
- School Mass – On Friday, September 19, our students will attend Mass together. We are so proud of how reverent and respectful our students have been during our first school masses of the year. Attending Mass as a community helps us remain grounded in faith and united in prayer.
- Grandparent Day – Following Mass on Friday, September 19, we will celebrate our beloved annual Grandparent Day. We are looking forward to welcoming so many of these special family members into our school community. Please note that registration for this is closed.
- Early Dismissal – Please note that Friday, September 19, will also be our first early dismissal of the year. Students will be dismissed at 11:45 a.m.

Thank you once again for your ongoing support and dedication to St. Anne School. We look forward to seeing you at our upcoming events and continuing this journey together.

With gratitude and blessings,

Greg Fries
