The Rebel Report

On Tuesday, the junior high Rebels finished their volleyball season in Hysham with matches against Sacred Heart. The A team completed its undefeated season, and B team defeated their opponents as well (only one loss for the B team this season).

Last Tuesday, the football teams saw action in Absarokee. The junior high team lost to the Huskies 32-0; the JV team won 61-20. In Friday's game in Lavina, the varsity pummeled the Pirates 78-33, and the junior high won its last game of the season 26-13.

The volleyball team went to Plenty Coups last Thursday where the varsity won in three. On Saturday, the Rebels took second in the Bridger tournaments, losing out to Broadus in a close match. The girls defeated Gardiner and Harlowton to get to the championship.

Pirate Brew

Fall flavors at Pirate Brew this week! We have the MVP (maple vanilla potion) and chai tea for these brisk mornings. Butterscotch and hazelnut are current favorites as well, and yes, we do have pumpkin spice on hand for a few weeks.

Students and staff, please place your orders and pay by Wednesday afternoon. We are open from 7:30-8:05 for pickup (or delivery). We will continue to offer both hot and iced lattes for now.
