YOUTUBE PARENTAL CONSENT AGREEMENT

Dear Parent/Guardian,

Rivendell Academy would like to allow our students access to YouTube for educational purposes. Currently, YouTube is not accessible by students and for us to allow access to YouTube, Google requires our school to obtain parental consent. Please note that this is in addition to the GSuite Permission Form.

We believe YouTube to be a very powerful educational tool when used in the classroom and throughout your student's learning processes. If you are not familiar with YouTube, YouTube is a free video sharing website that allows any user anywhere in the world to share a video, or view any video publicly shared by another user. As any individual in the world can upload a video to YouTube, videos may be deemed objectionable or inappropriate. We do apply a strict filtering system that blocks most objectionable or inappropriate content; however, it must be noted that the filtering system may not always block 100% of objectionable or inappropriate content.

As YouTube now falls under our districts Google Workspace Agreement, we are to provide parents/guardians with Google's privacy and security information. For detailed information and resources about Google's privacy and security policies, see below...

To provide consent for your student(s) to access YouTube while at school, please sign, date, and return the form to the Rivendell Academy school office. Email is preferred.

You should review this information in its entirety, but below are answers to some common questions:

What personal information does Google collect?

When creating a student account, Rivendell Academy may provide Google with certain personal information about the student, including, for example, a name, email address, and password. Google may also collect personal information directly from students, such as telephone number for account recovery or a profile photo added to the Google Workspace for Education account.

When a student uses Google services, Google also collects information based on the use of those services. This includes:

- device information, such as the hardware model, operating system version, unique device identifiers, and mobile network information including phone number;
- log information, including details of how a user used Google services, device event information, and the user's Internet Protocol (IP) address;
- location information, as determined by various technologies including IP address, GPS, and other sensors;
- unique application numbers, such as application version number; and
- cookies or similar technologies which are used to collect and store information about a browser or device, such as preferred language and other settings.

How does Google use this information?

In Google Workspace for Education Core Services, Google uses student personal information to provide, maintain, and protect the services. Google does not serve ads in the Core Services or use personal information collected in the Core Services for advertising purposes.

In Google Additional Services, Google uses the information collected from all Additional Services to provide, maintain, protect and improve them, to develop new ones, and to protect Google and its users. Google may also use this information to offer tailored content, such as more relevant search results. Google may combine personal information from one service with information, including personal information, from other Google services.

Can my child share information with others using the Google Workspace for Education account?

We may allow students to access Google services such as Google Docs and Sites, which include features where users can share information with others or publicly. When users share information publicly, it may be indexable by search engines, including Google.

Will Google disclose my child's personal information?

Google will not share personal information with companies, organizations and individuals outside of Google unless one of the following circumstances applies:

- With parental or guardian consent. Google will share personal information with companies, organizations or individuals outside of Google when it has parents' consent (for users below the age of consent), which may be obtained through Google Workspace for Education schools.
- With Rivendell Academy. Google Workspace for Education accounts, because they are school-managed accounts, give administrators access to information stored in them.
- For external processing. Google may provide personal information to affiliates or other trusted businesses or persons to process it for Google, based on Google's instructions and in compliance with the Google Workspace for Education privacy notice and any other appropriate confidentiality and security measures.
- For legal reasons. Google will share personal information with companies, organizations or individuals outside of Google if it has a good-faith belief that access, use, preservation or disclosure of the information is reasonably necessary to:
 - meet any applicable law, regulation, legal process or enforceable governmental request.

 - protect against harm to the rights, property or safety of Google, Google users or the public as required or permitted by law.

Google also shares non-personal information -- such as trends about the use of its services -- publicly and with its partners.

What choices do I have as a parent or guardian?

First, you can consent to the collection and use of your child's information by Google. If you don't provide your consent, we will not create a Google Workspace for Education account for your child, and Google will not collect or use your child's information as described in this notice.

If you consent to your child's use of Google Workspace for Education, you can access or request deletion of your child's Google Workspace for Education account by contacting Technology@RivendellSchool.org.

If you wish to stop any further collection or use of your child's information, you can request that we use the service controls available to limit your child's access to features or services, or delete your child's account entirely.
