EDITOR'S PAGE

At the beginning of this school year, the members of our Annual Staff did not realize what a wonderful, rewarding task was before us. The first few weeks found us completely lost, knowing nothing about an annual or how to prepare one.

Our Sales in October were a great success, marked by the excellent salesmanship of Janyce Gilbreath. We reached our goal of 500 books sold and began to plan our 1963 Crown Jewel.

The problems we had to face were numerous—lost pictures, broken cameras, deadlines not met. But certainly these problems could not have been overcome without the aid of a hard-working staff. First, I would like to thank our photographers David Fann, Philip Diemer, and Staf Brees. Without them, there would be no annual. Suzy Hubbard and Gina Longfield-Smith did an outstanding job with the Sophomore and Senior sections, as did Nancy Jeffrey and Sandra Jones with Freshmen, Juniors, and Advertisements. By selling all the ads for the ad section, Janyce again showed her ability as a salesman. A wonderful job was done by Bobby Waller with sports, and with organizations by Suzanne Cooper. To Bart Bevis goes my deepest thanks for creating our "Scottie," and to Marsha Myers for doing everything—art, features, and anything else that needed doing. My thanks also go to Mary Ann Zipprer, our Co-Editor, Pam Crouse, business manager, and to Kathy Manry and Susan Burr, next year's editors for helping us finish the book.

Last but certainly not least goes our deepest gratitude and affection to "Mrs. Eddards", for her untiring help and patience.

It is my sincere hope that each and every one of you will enjoy our 1963 Crown Jewel as much as we have enjoyed preparing it for you. May you always remember the 1962-63 school year as the best ever!
