Man Storms Church's Live Nativity, Allegedly Wanting to 'Kill Everyone,' Police Say

A congregation in Fort Wayne, Indiana, is praising God after members and locals escaped what could have been a deadly assault during a live nativity event. Tyler Leavitt has been arrested and charged for allegedly pointing a gun at a police officer providing security Saturday night at Central Ministries of Fort Wayne, where the man purportedly wanted to “kill everybody,” according to court documents obtained by WPTA-TV.

As millions of Americans look forward to celebrating the joy of the Christmas season with family and friends, inmates across the country face the painful reality that they will spend it alone. Yet, one Virginia prison ministry is looking to spread a little cheer to the thousands locked up behind bars to let them know that Jesus loves them and they are not forgotten.

Highlights from Letters to Power

Thanks so much for the online broadcasting. Growing up in Pensacola, FL, I was a teenager when Power 88 started. Now that I have been gone from Pensacola for the last 8 years and living in Arizona, it's so great to listen to some sounds from home. I've listened to a lot of other Christian radio stations and none of them come close to Power 88. You guys ROCK! Thanks.

Supporting Christian Radio

From now until the end of the year, our “seasonal duties” will crowd in around us. From presents and parties to special services and family visits. These things may block our spiritual vision and cause us to miss seeing so many people around us who are alone. They may spend the holidays comforted only by the light that Goforth Media radio ministry (Power 88) sheds into their home. We ask you to consider giving a gift to this ministry to help them. So the hurting and lonely might continue to hear “tidings of great joy”. Goforth Media is a 501-C3 ministry, so your financial gifts are tax deductible.
