Community Demographics:

Our school district is made up of several smaller communities. To honor these communities, we have their community banners/mascots in our gymnasium. The past couple of years we have also had a "Back to....." night where we honor graduates from those schools. This has been a very successful event at our games when alumni can gather to remember the days when they attended their "home school".

Performance Data:

(Standardized test information and district created)

To measure the true abilities and growth of our students, we do not focus on any one particular measure, but rely on a variety of artifacts. Data from standardized testing is used to drive instructional delivery; however, it is by no means solely determines the success or failure of a students' ability. Project based learning, inquiry based learning and explorations, school to work experiences, CTE opportunities, and Senior Capstone projects are among the performance measures given to our students.

Perception Data:

Showcasing our student achievements to our public has been extremely successful in gaining community support for our programs. We have many active clubs that provide goods and services to our community members and volunteerism is extremely promoted with our students. Former graduates entering the workforce or college are also brought back to share some of the past and current experiences with our students. We basically have a four tier transition system. Preschool screening takes place in the spring of each year. Open houses at the preschool and kindergarten level take place to bring awareness of the facilities and school procedures for these beginning students. A panel of middle school students visits with our fourth graders regarding expectations of middle school. We also have an open house prior to the beginning of school where the students visit all classrooms, meet the teachers, and hear the expectations for the school year. Our Freshmen transition class work on developing study skills, organization, and commitments for a successful high school experience. Our Senior transition class focuses on scholarship, resume writing, interview techniques, and other items that attribute to future success once students graduate.

Data Retreat Process

As our ELL population grows, so is the importance for our staff to be trained in working with these children. We have had ELL trainers work with the staff on addressing the needs of this population. We also have had Janeen Outka with Teachwell work with our staff on data analysis. Our plan is to hire someone next year to work more extensive on interpreting student data.

How will the district prepare and disseminate the annual District and School Assessment report to all stake holders in the district?

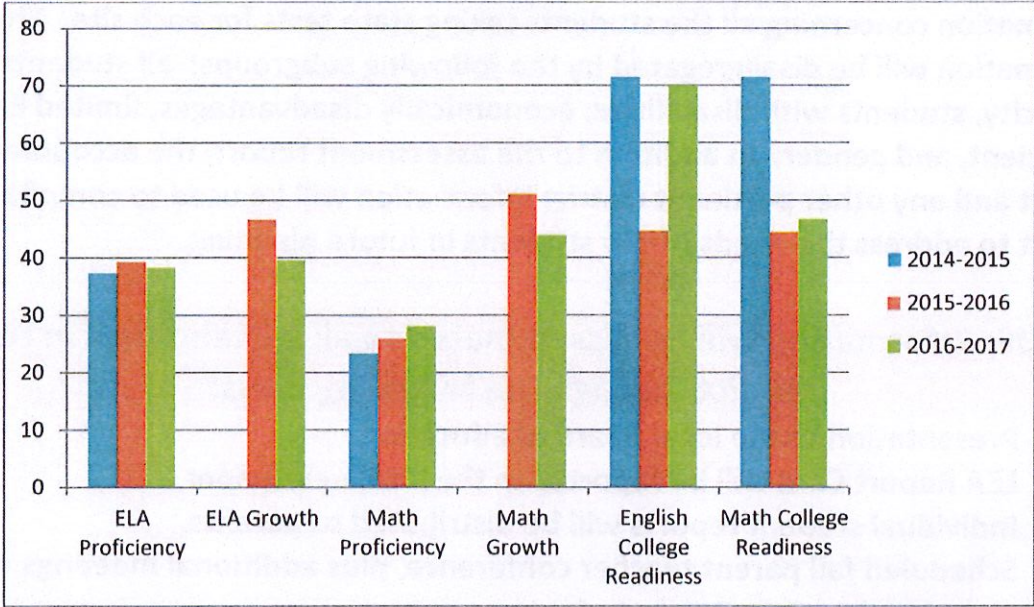

During professional development days, administrators and teachers will look at the assessment report provided by the Department of Education containing information concerning all the students taking state tests for each site. This information will be disaggregated by the following subgroups: all students ethnicity, students with disabilities, economically disadvantages, limited English proficient, and gender. In addition to the assessment report, the accountability report and any other pertinent district information will be used to compile a report to address the needs of our students in future planning.

This information will be disseminated to all stakeholders in the district through the following ways:

1. Presentation to the local board of education.
2. LEA Report Card will be reported in the local newspaper.
3. Individual student reports will be distributed to parents.
4. Scheduled fall parent teacher conference, plus additional meetings with parents who have at risk students.
5. DIBELS data sent home to parents three times a year for town elementary.
6. Parents will receive a copy of the assessment report for the district and their child within 30 days of the start of the school year.
