

Dr. Dan Throgmorton Memorial Scholarship Program

In 1983, seniors walked the same hallways and sat in the same classrooms as Collinwood High School seniors still do today. Amongst this class of seniors was Danny Wayne Throgmorton, a seemingly ordinary young man with extraordinary goals. A young man who's vocabulary of negative words only included words like "Can't" or "Impossible" in phrases such as "Cant Anything Stop Me" or "Nothing is Impossible". This young man set the bar high for himself and hit the ground running.

After graduation he attended Middle Tennessee State University and received a Bachelor degree in Political Science. He also attended Jimmy Swagger Bible College and in 1988 received his Pastoral Ministry degree. He then attended Lee University where he received a Bachelor's of Science degree in Theology. While receiving all of these degrees he was working towards his Master's Degree in Education from Middle Tennessee State University and received his Master's in Education in 1991. He moved to California and worked at several universities including (UCLA) University of California, Los Angeles and Los Rios Community College, Sacramento California. In 1999, he received his Doctor of Education degree from (USC) University of Southern California. He continued to stay in the California area for several years working within the California College District. He retired in his late 40's and in 2013 he moved back home to Collinwood, TN. Even in retirement his passion for helping students achieve their goals was never unwavering. Unfortunately, Dan left us to soon to fully be able to see his dream fulfilled; that neither one, nor a few but all have the same opportunities to achieve greatness. The hope is that this Scholarship which Dr. Danny Wayne Throgmorton laid the foundation will continue to grow from one student into thousands.
