VOLUME 52

OK, it's back to school, back to books; back to teachers' dirty looks!

Hey, dirty looks don't scare us!
We're gonna have some fun b4 we roll outta
here!!

What is Bunkie High School in 2002??

It's a really great place to practice our smiles....

....to get in touch with Mother Nature....

....to practice our reading skills....

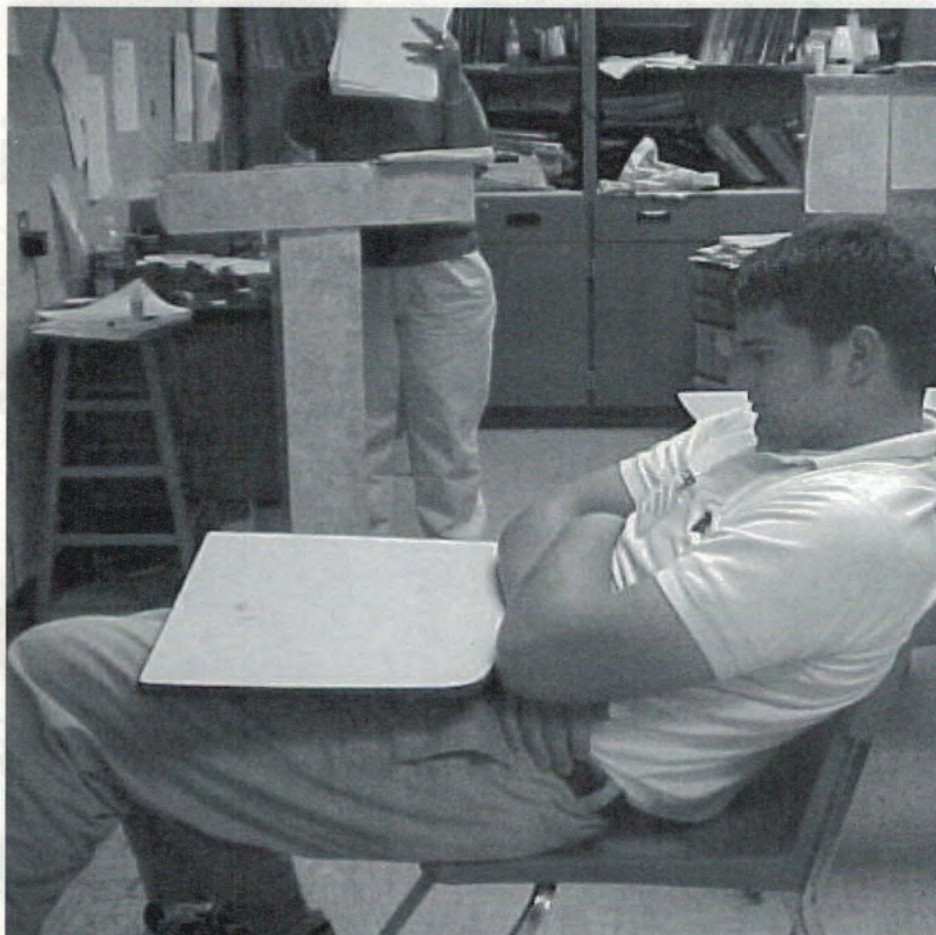

....to get carried away....

....to go on a field trip....

....to bring popcorn balls to Mrs. Doucet...
(who is so extremely nice that she deserves popcorn balls from everyone...REALLY!)

....to catch up on some much needed sleep, especially during football season....

....to get caught up in everything....

....to make a few friends, or a whole lot of 'em....

....to meet a great guy who'll rescue you in time of distress....

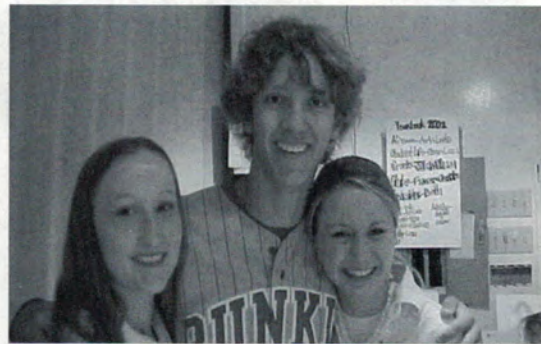

....to discover what life is like inside a locker....

....or inside a box--with a roommate....

....to catch up on some yearbook ads.....

....to hang out with a couple of crazy friends....

....to work on our tans....

....and to be graduated from in

Homecoming Pep Rally

since they came to BHS as freshmen (way back in of 1998), these members
the Homecoming Court have of this moment.

No matter what the underclassmen may say, it just doesn't get any better than this:

Being a BHS Senior!

Lots of Hard Work:
Erica helps to get the gym ready for the Pep Rally against the Marksville Tigers. We've just got to keep that Catskin here!

A Wink and a Nod:
Every time we're roving around campus with our yearbook camera, we catch a shot of Jamie surrounded by the ladies! SWEET!!

Actor Wannabes:
When they heard that Spiderman was being made into a movie, Jill, John, and Kevin immediately started practicing their climbing.

Sticking Out the Booty:
It looks like Olivia has been taking gardening lessons from her aunt. (And maybe some other kind of lessons, too--see faculty section.)

Senior Prom Night:

- A Boutonniere for Your Date: $20
- Your Hair and Nails Done to Perfection: $75
- A Dress That Makes You Feel Like a Princess: $300
- Memories to Last a Lifetime: PRICELESS

Being a Senior Is Such Hard Work.....

And a whole lotta fun! It looks like someone partied so much at Prom that now she's catching up on her beauty sleep at school. Sweet Dreams...

Bunkie High's Very Own Superhero:

Well, when the auditioning was over, it was clear to everyone who would be selected to play the role of Spiderman--no one else but Kevin, of course!

WHAT'S UP, GUYS?

Have you ever seen sneakier looks on seniors' faces? (Except on John's face) But you can never really tell what's going on in that devious mind...Speaking of devious, wanna guess what Leon's thinking about? Too, Too Scary!!

Travis Armand returns for a visit to Bunkie High. We must be a lovely bunch of coconuts! Why else would he visit us?!?

Mrs. D and her girls prepare for the Annual FCCLA Banquet. We know that more than a few tears will be shed during those speeches.

Mrs. McKey explains to Andrew why she won't be able to teach during May. (Rockabye, Baby!)

THE FACULTY:

Kristin and B-B meet to make a Danceline decision: what uniform to wear to the Pep Rally.

Watch out, Mrs. Jill. These two could charm a starving man out of his last morsel of food.

Brandon Scott smiles after placing 2nd in Biology II.

John Granger places 2nd in Food and Nutrition.

These Literary Rally Participants are all smiles. You wanna know why? Well, for one thing, their rally tests are finished. And for another, they finally get to go home and sleep; they've been up since the rooster crowed this morning--SATURDAY!

Working at the carwash...Wasn't there a song about that a long time ago, like in the olden days-when our parents were in high school?

These sweet girls smile all the time, even when they're working.

THE BAILEY HOTEL

Now Open

Deep in the heart of Louisiana sits the historic Bailey Hotel, where turn-of-the-century style and Cajun hospitality come together. Located in Bunkie, The Bailey Hotel, built in 1907, was placed on the National Register of Historic Places by the Department of the Interior in August of 1999. The Renovation is Finally Complete after 3 years. Experience antique furnishings, fine Cajun dining, modern comfort and true southern charm centrally located at the Crossroads of Louisiana. Make your visit to Louisiana truly an experience as the Grand Dame has awakened and is the Belle of the Ball. We invite you to stay with us on your next visit to New Orleans and the unique State that is called Louisiana.

Now Here's What's Known As A Lucky Dude!

Do We Have to Leave Already? ?? The Fun Can't Be Over Yet!!!

Play It Again!

Smile, Baby... Smile!

Hurry Up With This Picture. A Good Song Is Playing!

Now Here's The Way To Travel...

This Is The Life...

Party In The House!

Awww.....

What A Smile!

(right): And why are Marksville people posing for a picture with our Bunkie High grads? Oh, they're friends of John's; that automatically gives them a VIP pass.

(right): Marquita James, Nina Brown, and Paige Smoot are rollin' out for good!

(right): Hats off to the Graduates of 2002!!

(above): Taylor Newton, historian, was the Mistress of Ceremonies.

(right): Hungry? Why wait? Go grab a Snickers. (Or you could wait to eat some of those little meatballs at the Graduation Party!)

GRADUATION

CONGRATULATIONS, CLASS OF 2002

Jamie Ducote gives his Valedictory Address and tells about bleaching his chicken.

Jamie is more than satisfied with his thousands of dollars in scholarships. (Uh, he should be!)

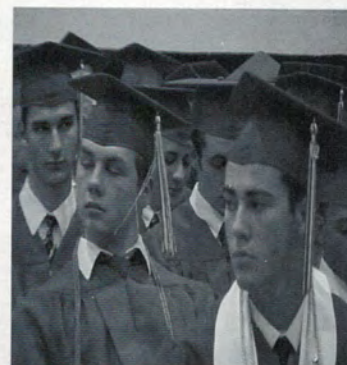

Laura Singletary gives her Salutatory Address about her memories of the past four years at Bunkie High.

Laura's smiling because the hard work's done for now, and tonight she can party!

GOOD LUCK
