In the final two hours of Jesus of Nazareth, the story moves through the Last Supper to His suffering and death on the Cross.

Though Pilate finds no guilt in Him, the pressure of the crowd leads to Jesus' condemnation, scourging, and crucifixion. Director Franco Zeffirelli portrays the Passion with restraint and solemnity, emphasizing Jesus' forgiveness, His steadfast trust in the Father, and the grief of those who love Him.

This 1977 miniseries concludes with the Resurrection, the commissioning of the disciples, and Jesus' words promising to be with us
"until the end of time."
