14	Administrators should have a more positive attitude about parents who actually call or come up to school in regards to information about different programs & not to know what services the school partner with (different agencies) in community. Your school messenger system doesn't work properly. It called me at 8pm that night to say my child was absent for the day and my child was present, but was late for school. But what if was a real life situation where my child made it to school but never checked & went missing. To much time would of went by nobody knowing anything. Parent coordinator family engagement definitely need to work on actually communicating with parents if they message her. She doesn't respond if you message her about anything on Class Dojo. Anybody can have automated system call somebody that takes no effort. You need to be able to answer parents questions & respond.	2/17/2022 4:37 PM
15	Ways to communicate and better involve parents with their child's learning curriculum. Ways to teach discipline for students in a caring way. More, more events at school for students like field trips for learning and events at school to build social skills and camaraderie.	2/17/2022 2:34 PM
