Parent Involvement Plan

Parent Involvement Plan

Taylor-White is committed to a quality education for all students. The Taylor-White faculty and staff value and encourage parental involvement. Here are the ways Taylor-White will ensure parents have access to the education programs in which their children participate.

- Annual Title I Parent Meeting: Each fall Taylor-White holds its required annual meeting to inform parents about the Title I Program. Parents are informed by notices sent home with students and the telephone messaging service. Topics discussed: the 1% set-aside for parent involvement, the LEA Title I plan, the CIP plan, the MCPSS Parent Involvement Plan, Taylor-White's Parent involvement Plan, School-Parent Compacts, requesting the qualifications of teachers, notifications of teachers who are not highly qualified, the annual evaluation of the Parent Involvement Plan, how parents can be involved in the Title I process, and the Parent Advisory Committee and PTO contacts. All parents are invited to attend.
- Parent meetings are offered at flexible times to assist in accommodating a variety of schedules.
- Parent resources are available to be checked-out before, during, and after school through the library book room.
- Parents are invited to be part of the Parent Advisory Committee.
- Parents are invited to be a part of the Continuous Improvement Plan (CIP) Committee.
- The members of the Parent Advisory Committee and the CIP committee work together to make decisions on how to spend Taylor-White's parenting money, which is a total of $1,671.02. A portion of these funds will be used for parent communication folders, totaling $1,305.00. Postage for report cards, post cards, IEPs, and other parent communication will also come from these funds; the total for postage is $356.40.
- Fall grade-level parent meetings present parents with the grade-level curricula, expectations, and assessments used to evaluate students. Parents learn about school procedures such as contacting teachers and scheduling conferences.
- Taylor-White provides parents with the School-Parent-Student compact that is signed by each stakeholder. The compact is approved by the Parent Advisory Committee and the CIP Committee. Teachers and parents should review this document at all parent-teacher conferences.
- Taylor-White's Continuous Improvement Plan is distributed to all parents and a copy is available for review at the front desk and on the school's website. Parents who are dissatisfied with the plan may submit their concerns in writing to the school. The school will then submit the concerns to the Division of Federal and Special Programs at Central Office.
- Parent surveys are conducted each spring. The results are discussed with the Parent Advisory Committee and the CIP Committee.
- Taylor-White works to build the capacity for parental involvement by encouraging parents to become equal partners in their child's education. We do this by holding informational meetings to provide parents with tools to work with their children at home (such as Literacy Night), increasing faculty and staff development of parenting activities through Professional Learning Teams and coordinating Title I programs
- Taylor-White will provide information and meetings to parents in their native language when possible. Translators can be used for meetings. Written notices are sent home in languages other than English when possible.
- Taylor-White makes every effort to accommodate parents with disabilities. Taylor-White offers handicapped-accessible parking, handicapped-accessible bathrooms, ramps, and an elevator. Parents who are unable to attend conferences due to a disability are offered telephone conferences.
- Taylor-White makes every effort to work with parents in meeting their requests related to their involvement in their child's education.
