

WELCOME TO 5TH GRADE

Mrs. Acreman and Ms. Narramore

MEET MRS. ACREMAN

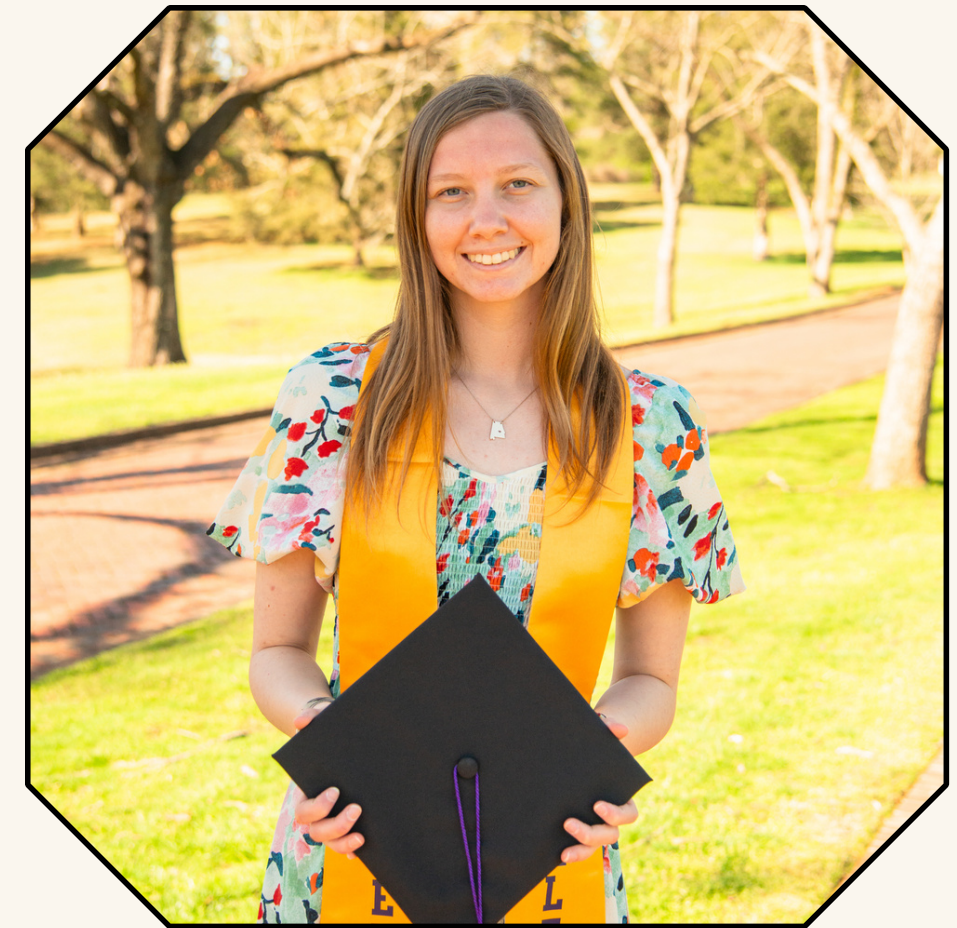

I grew up in Munster, Indiana. I moved down to Alabama to attend the University of Alabama in Tuscaloosa where I lived for 6 years. I graduated from there with a degree in Special Education Early Childhood. I have received my certification for all of elementary education! I taught 3rd grade for 3 years in Tuscaloosa. This is my 3rd year in 5th grade. You might now or recognize me by Ms. Thornburg, but I recently got married to Jeremiah Acreman, who is also a teacher. He teaches high school English. I have three animals: 2 dogs (Astro and Woody) and 1 cat (Lavender). I played softball for over 12 years as a catcher. My favorite hobbies are reading, baking, traveling, and spending time with my family.

MEET MS. NARRAMORE

I'm from Prattville, Alabama and have lived here my whole life. I went to the University of Montevallo and graduated with a bachelor's degree in elementary education. While at Montevallo, I was on the swim team and I also worked in sports photography which inspired my sports themed room. I am now working at the same elementary school I attended for 1st-6th grade. I am currently pursuing my masters in Elementary Education. Outside of the classroom I enjoy going to the gym, art, and coaching swimming for our local swim team I grew up swimming for.

WATER BOTTLES

- Students may bring a water bottle that has a lid.
- Students are responsible for taking their water bottle when they swap classes or at dismissal.

For Ms. Narramore's Classroom:

Students will place their water bottles in one of the buckets under the science and social studies board.

For Ms. Thornburg's Classroom:

Students will place their water bottles in one of the crates under the sink in the back.

DISCIPLINE

Step	Consequence
Before each step	Warning
Step 1	Teacher-Student Conference
Step 2	Parents will be notified by phone call or ParentSquare message of student's behavior.
Step 3	Parent/Teacher/Administrator Conference
Step 4	Referral to Administration for Habitual Class A Behavior

Steps can be given if students are:

- not prepared for class,
- disrespectful to the teacher or student, talking at inappropriate times, teasing/bullying,
- inappropriate language, hallway infraction, off task (or disruptive during class times), cheating/lying,
- not following directions,
- inappropriate restroom behavior.

Students will receive an in-class consequence by the teacher such as silent lunch, silent snack, or reduced brain break.

Resets every semester!
