GOOD NEWS

- A new sound system is being installed in the gym during fall break. It will have many features including wireless microphones.
- KERR has given us a quote for new library furniture. We are hoping to get to order this soon using library funds and child care funds.
- PBIS meeting is today. Grades 1st, 3rd, and 5th had zero office referrals, no majors write ups or bus write ups, in the month of August.
- We will be starting a Step Team using some fourth and fifth grade girls. This will be for community service and character building. We hope to have them perform during our basketball and dodgeball games. They may even get to perform for HHS or CCHS games.
- Our September Showcase is Thursday, September 29th.
- We will be having a Wellness Night. This will be for physical, mental and social wellness. Hoptown Nutrition, our school guidance counselors, and the YMCA will have a booth set up in the gym. The health department will be giving lessons on effective hand washing and Cassie Dougherty, our school based therapist, will be doing a lesson.
- The Book Fair started this week and will last until Friday.
- The Palmetto Fundraiser ended on September 20th. It looks like it is doing pretty well.
- The Chili Festival will take place on November 4th from 5:00 to 8:00. New this year will be a petting zoo.
- The PBIS reward will be the Friday before fall break. We will have popcorn and a bouncer.

POLICY REVIEW

Mrs. Owen went over the Consultation Policy. This is the 2nd reading of this policy. A motion was made to accept the Consultation Policy as written with some grammatical changes made.

Mrs. Owen presented the Curriculum Policy. This is the first Reading. A motion was made and accepted by consensus to accept it as written.

SAF - $14,456.90

DAF - $33,843.55

PRINCIPAL'S COMMENTS

- Our instructional walk through was good. The assistant superintendent said that Millbrooke is ready to take off. Our challenge is to start letting students to take ownership of instruction.
- Our 5th grade students went to the PowWow and received glowing remarks about their behavior. They were fantastic!
- Kindergarten, first, and second grade students will be visiting the Pumpkin Patch soon.
- Mrs. Owen started a student advisory council that meets once a month. They talk about things they like and don't like here at school. So far they have discussed that they like the monitoring in the cafeteria during lunch and having the same special all week. They will meet again on the last day of the month.
